Timeline

February 14, 1996

Kevin McClatchy and his financial partners purchase the Pirates with condition of building a baseball-only ballpark within five years.

March 1997

A corporate group kicks off the Regional Renaissance Initiative – an effort to increase the sales tax by half a cent in 11 counties around Pittsburgh – as a way to help finance the new baseball stadium.

November 4, 1997

The sales-tax increase proposal is rejected by voters in all 11 counties.

March 1998

The details of PLAN B are officially released.

July 1998

The Regional Asset District board, which administers half the revenue raised by the county's 1% sales tax, delivers a huge endorsement for PLAN B, agreeing to supply $13.4 million a year for 30 years as the local portion of the funding.

August 6, 1998

The Pirates and PNC Bank Corp. announce a 20-year marketing alliance under which the new home of the Pirates will be named PNC Park.

August 17, 1998

First model of PNC Park unveiled.

September 29, 1998

Demolition begins on future site of PNC Park.

October 29, 1998

Pirates announce selection of HOK Sport of Kansas City, MO, as the bridging architect, responsible for the design of PNC Park.

January 26, 1999

City Planning Commission approves zoning and design changes.

January 28, 1999

HOK unveils initial artist rendering of ballpark.

February 3, 1999

PLAN B approved when Legislature voted in favor of providing $150 million in state funding.

February 11, 1999

Materials from the late 1700's and early 1800's are discovered by archaeologists digging on the site.

March 14, 1999

Three Rivers Plaza, a six-story apartment complex on the site of PNC Park, is imploded at 7:00 a.m.

April 1, 1999

The final design of PNC Park - a 5 foot by 5 foot model - is unveiled.

April 7, 1999

Ceremonial groundbreaking takes place with Pennsylvania Governor Tom Ridge, U.S. Senator Rick Santorum, Pittsburgh Mayor Tom Murphy, Major League Baseball Commissioner Bud Selig, National League President Leonard Coleman, Pirates' CEO and Managing General Partner Kevin McClatchy and PNC Bank Chairman/CEO Tom O'Brien all in attendance.

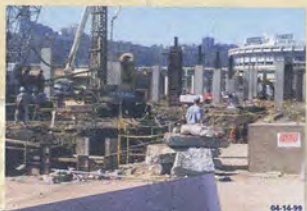

April 14, 1999

Official construction begins as 55-foot deep concrete "piles" are poured. The 2,259 piles will serve as the structural foundation for the ballpark.

May 27, 1999

The Pirates announce the "Bucco Bricks" promotion, in which fans can purchase personalized bricks that will help pave the plazas outside the ballpark.

KEVIN McCLATCHY

Managing General Partner

Kevin McClatchy was named Chief Executive Officer and Managing General Partner of the Pittsburgh Pirates when the ownership group he formed purchased the franchise on February 14, 1996.

Despite the efforts of other potential buyers to move the Pirates elsewhere, the youngest owner in baseball was determined to keep the team in Pittsburgh. Maintaining a combination of tenacity and ingenuity throughout a grueling nine-month effort, McClatchy organized a group of civic-minded individuals and local corporations to save the franchise.

On August 6, 1998, McClatchy's vision of a new baseball-only ballpark started becoming a reality when PNC Bank struck a deal with the Pirates to call the new venue PNC Park. Construction on the 38,000-seat venue began in April of 1999 on the land adjacent to the Roberto Clemente Bridge (6th Street) along the North Shore of the Allegheny River. On January 10, 2001, Paul Beeston, the Chief Operating Officer of Major League Baseball, proclaimed PNC Park as the "best-looking baseball stadium he had ever seen."

The club, which is expected to establish attendance records in its first season at PNC Park in 2001, enjoyed success at the Three Rivers Stadium turnstiles in McClatchy's first five years at the helm, averaging close to 1.6 million fans a season. In the past five years, the organization has posted 12 sellouts (a record four sellouts in 1997, three each in 1998 and 1999 and two in 2000). In the final game ever @Three Rivers on October 1, 2000, the Pirates attracted 55,351 fans - the largest regular-season crowd to ever see a baseball game in Pittsburgh.

In just his second year as the club's principal owner, the Pirates went from a last-place finish in 1996 to being the talk of baseball in 1997. Prior to the '97 campaign, Baseball America - considered the premier publication on minor league baseball - rated the Pirates' farm system as "the best in baseball" and USA Today newspaper named the Pirates as its "Organization of the Year" at the conclusion of the season. In December of 1997, USA Today Baseball Weekly ranked the Pirates' success in 1997 as one of the top five baseball stories for the year.

McClatchy was recently honored by the Anti-Defamation League as its Man-of-the-Year, receiving the American Heritage Award at a ceremony this past January. He was also named by Vectors/Pittsburgh as its Man-of-the-Year for 1999 and was honored by The Post-Gazette for his leadership role in assuring the Pirates' continued presence in Pittsburgh into the new century at the annual Dapper Dan dinner in February of 2000. For his commitment to keeping the club in Pittsburgh and stressing the importance of a new baseball-only venue, in addition to making over 100 speaking engagements in the tri-state area, In Pittsburgh newsweekly named McClatchy its "Person-of-the-Year" in 1997.

The fifth owner of the 114-year-old organization, Kevin most recently served as National Sales Manager for the Newspaper Network; a subsidiary of McClatchy Newspapers. The McClatchy family, which founded The Sacramento Bee newspaper in 1857, has more than 20 different newspapers in 10 states nationwide.

McClatchy's professional career began at WPLG-TV, the ABC affiliate in Miami, where he served as a sports producer. He later joined Knight-Ridder Newspapers and spent four years in the national advertising and marketing department at The Miami Herald. In 1990, Kevin returned to California where he ran the daily business operations for The Amador Ledger-Dispatch and continued to work in the advertising and marketing departments for McClatchy Newspapers.

PERSONAL: Kevin S. McClatchy...Born on 1/13/63 in Sacramento, CA...Attended Trinity-Pawling High School in Pawling, NY, and received a degree in Political Science from the University of California at Santa Barbara...Is a member of the Board of Trustees at both schools...In 1998, was honored by ARC-Allegheny and was the recipient of the Outstanding Community Service Award presented by LaRoche College...Received the Golden Ear award in December of '98 from CONTACT, Pittsburgh's Crisis & Suicide Prevention Center, for demonstrating outstanding listening skills...Named YMCA Man-of-the-Year in 1998...Named by Sports Business Journal as one of America's top "Forty Under 40" the past two years (1999-2000)...Serves on the board of Catholic Charities, Sports City in Puerto Rico, the Roberto Clemente Foundation, University of Pittsburgh Cancer Institute and Dapper Dan Charities...Is also involved with the Western Pennsylvania School for the Deaf, the Jackie Robinson Foundation and Animal Friends...Was involved with the United Way Foundation and the Big Brother program while living in Miami...Named to Major League Baseball's Blue Ribbon Task Force on Baseball Economics on 1/13/99 and is a member of MLB's International Committee.

DICK FREEMAN

Chief Operating Officer

Dick Freeman was named Chief Operating Officer of the Pirates on October 8, 1996. He is responsible for overseeing the day-to-day business operations of the club which include broadcasting, marketing, public/media relations and finance. In addition, he is actively involved with the club's new ballpark project (PNC Park).

Freeman's ties to baseball came from San Diego, where he spent 14 years in the Padres organization. Dick joined the Padres in 1981 as Chief Financial Officer and became Vice President of Administration in 1983. In 1986, he was named Executive Vice President and Chief Operating Officer. Freeman held that position until September of 1988 when he was named President of the Padres organization, a role he served until July of 1995.

Prior to his career with the Padres, Freeman was the treasurer of a San Diego area savings & loan and was also with the accounting firm of Peat, Marwick, Mitchell & Company in both Los Angeles and San Diego.

PERSONAL: Richard J. Freeman...Born on 3/7/44 in Oskaloosa, IA...Wife's name is Judi...One daughter: Heather (25)...Graduated from the University of Iowa in 1966 with a degree in business administration...Served in the U.S. Navy and was stationed at Naval Air Station North Island from 1969-70...Was Chairman of the National March of Dimes Board of Trustees from 1994 to 1999 and was a Board member from 1989 to 2000...Is currently Chairman of the Pittsburgh Make-A-Wish Board of Directors and a member of the the Salk Institute Board of Trustees.

CAM BONIFAY

Senior V.P. - General Manager

Cam Bonifay was named Senior Vice President and General Manager of the Pittsburgh Pirates on June 19, 1993, after serving the club for three years as Assistant General Manager. On September 1, 1998, the club extended his contract through 2003.

Among all 30 major league General Managers, Cam ranks fifth when it comes to continuous tenure with the same club - fourth among N.L. GM's.

With Bonifay in his current role, the Pirates have been committed to scouting and signing amateur players while continuing to improve the club thru key trades and acquisitions. Most recently Cam and his staff worked hard to acquire free agents Derek Bell and Terry Mulholland, slugger Brian Giles from the Indians, 1999 Rookie-of-the-Year candidate Warren Morris from Texas and lefthander Scott Sauerbeck in the 1998 Rule Five draft. In 2000, Giles was signed to a long-term contract and shortly after the season ended, Jason Kendall and the club agreed to terms on a multi-year deal, which will keep him in a Pittsburgh uniform thru the 2007 campaign. Veterans Mike Benjamin and John Vander Wal also had their contracts extended and Bonifay acquired prospects Jack Wilson and Chris Spurling via late-season moves.

In a series of seven trades between July and December of 1996, the Pirates acquired 17 prospects in an effort to strengthen an already promising player development system. Bonifay and his staff received national notice as Baseball America recognized the club as having the best minor league system in all of baseball prior to the season, and USA Today named the Pirates its organization of the year in September of '97.

For his efforts in 1997, The Sporting News named Bonifay its Major League Executive of the Year - an award given annually by the publication since 1936. Joe L. Brown, who served the Pirates as General Manager for 22 years between 1956-1976 and again in 1985, is the only other Pirate executive to win the honor (1958).

Bonifay joined the Pirates organization as a national scout in September of 1988 before being promoted to Director of Scouting in November of the same year. He served the Pirates in that role for two seasons before being named Assistant General Manager on December 11, 1990.

Cam began his career in scouting with the Cincinnati Reds organization as an associate scout in 1976 and he also worked in scouting for the St. Louis Cardinals for three years (1978 to 1980). During that period, he was also a teacher and a basketball, baseball and football coach in the high school ranks in Macon, GA. He returned to the Reds as a scouting supervisor in the Southeast United States and Latin America (1982 to 1987). Bonifay spent the 1988 baseball season at Georgia Tech where he served as an assistant coach and recruiting coordinator before being hired by the Pirates.

Bonifay was a three-sport letterman in baseball, football and basketball at Mark Smith High School in Macon, GA. He was an All-State performer in baseball as a senior and the starting point guard on the state championship basketball team as a junior. Cam earned a degree in industrial management from Georgia Tech in 1974 where he was an All-American first baseman/third baseman. He was also the place-kicker on the football team, which helped earn him a spot in the Georgia Tech Sports Hall of Fame. After graduating from college, he played baseball in the St. Louis Cardinals' organization for one year.

EXECUTIVE BIOGRAPHIES

WILLIE STARGELL
SPECIAL BASEBALL ADVISOR TO THE CEO

On February 11, 1997, Willie Stargell returned to the Pirates' organization as a special assistant to General Manager Cam Bonifay. His title and duties changed prior to this season. In addition to special assignment duties, Stargell now offers major and minor league player evaluations and assists in personnel decisions for the major league club.

"Pops" spent 21 seasons in a Pirates uniform between 1962 and 1982. In 2,360 games he batted .282 with 475 home runs, seven homers in post-season play, and 1,540 RBI. The seven-time All-Star is the franchise leader in homers, RBI and extra-base hits (953) and ranks among the club's top 10 in games, at bats (7,927), runs (1,195), hits (2,232), doubles (423) and total bases (4,190).

In 1979 Willie shared the National League's Most Valuable Player award with St. Louis' Keith Hernandez and went on to earn MVP honors in both the League Championship Series against Cincinnati and in the World Series against Baltimore. The Pirates retired his uniform #8 in 1982 and on January 12, 1988, Stargell became the 200th member of the Baseball Hall of Fame and the 17th player elected in his first year of eligibility.

After retiring from the game in 1982, Willie was out of baseball until 1985 when he returned to Pittsburgh to serve as a coach under manager Chuck Tanner. He accompanied Tanner to Atlanta the following season, where he served as first base coach and hitting coach for the Braves from 1986 to May of 1988. Prior to joining the Pirates in his new capacity, Stargell was a Special Assistant to the Director of Player Development for the Atlanta Braves.

PERSONAL: Willie was born on 3/6/41 in Earlsboro, OK, and currently resides in Wilmington, NC, with his wife Margaret. He has four daughters; Wendy, Precious, Dawn and Kelli, one son; Willie, Jr. and four grandchildren.

Steve Greenberg has been a member of the Pirates front office staff since December of 1976. He was named to his current position on May 7, 1997, after serving the club as its Vice President of Marketing and Public Relations.

His current responsibilities include working with architects, planners and developers on ballpark design and ancillary development. In addition, Steve oversees the club's communications efforts as they pertain to both day-to-day operations and the new project.

Greenberg joined the Pirates as Assistant Director of Season Ticket and Group Sales in 1976. He was promoted to Director of Season Ticket Sales in October of 1981 and has also served as Assistant Vice President of Marketing and Director of Sales and Marketing. He was appointed Vice President of Sales and Marketing in October of 1987, a title he held until it was expanded to Vice President of Marketing and Operations in 1991. In 1994, he also served as the club's All-Star Game coordinator.

It was under his guidance that the Pirates established franchise records in ticket sales and attendance in 1991. The club sold in excess of 2.4 million tickets and drew an all-time record of 2,065,302 fans to Three Rivers Stadium that season.

Greenberg began his professional career in 1974 as General Manager of the Charleston Pirates of the Western Carolina League (A). He held the same position for the Midwest League's Dubuque Packers (A) in 1975 and 1976.

LLOYD McCLENDON

MANAGER

AGE: 42
RESIDES: Merrillville, IN
BATS: Right
HEIGHT: 6'0"
PLAYING POSITION: Outfielder
CONTRACT: Signed thru 2003

BORN: 1/11/59 in Gary, IN

THROWS: Right
WEIGHT: 210

Lloyd McClendon became the 35th manager in the history of the Pittsburgh Pirates when he replaced Gene Lamont on October 23, 2000. He begins the 2001 season as the youngest manager in the major leagues.

McClendon spent the previous four seasons (1997-2000) working as the Pirates' major league hitting coach under Lamont. He served the organization as its minor league hitting coordinator in 1996.

His managerial resume includes a California League championship after guiding the Lancaster Stealth to a 26-16 regular season record and the top mark in the 1999 Fall League. This past off-season, "Mac" managed the Peoria Javelinas in the Arizona Fall League, but resigned from that duty on November 1, one week after being named manager of the Pirates.

Lloyd spent parts of eight seasons in the major leagues; playing the last four years of his big league career with the Pirates. In 570 major league games, he compiled a .244 batting average, 35 home runs and 154 RBI. He batted .251 with 17 homers and 77 RBI in 312 games with the Bucs.

Originally selected by the New York Mets in the eighth round of the 1980 June free agent draft, McClendon made his professional debut with Kingsport in the Appalachian League that summer. He was traded to Cincinnati on 12/16/82, along with pitcher Charlie Puleo and outfielder Jason Felice, in exchange for pitcher Tom Seaver. In 1986, his second full season at the Triple-A level, Lloyd led the American Association with 24 home runs and was named to the league's post-season All-Star team. He made his major league debut with the Reds the following season against Montreal on 4/6.

After spending two seasons in the Cubs' organization, "Mac" was claimed off waivers by the Pirates on 9/7/90. After four seasons in a Pittsburgh uniform, he was granted free agency and signed a minor league contract with Cleveland on 5/14/95. Lloyd retired as a player after appearing in 37 games with Buffalo (AAA) in 1995.

During his big league career, McClendon appeared in the League Championship Series with the Cubs (1989) and Pirates (1991-92) and compiled a .625 average (10-for-16) in 11 games. He homered off Atlanta's Marvin Freeman in Game Six of the 1992 L.C.S. and shares the Series record for most hits in one inning (2-10/13/92, 2nd inning). In addition, Lloyd reached base safely in each of his last eight official plate appearances of the '92 L.C.S. (four singles, walk, home run, two walks).

PERSONAL: Lloyd Glenn McClendon...Wife's name is Ingrid...Two children; Schenell (4/9/83) and Bo (10/4/87)...Graduate of Roosevelt High School (IN) in 1977 where he was an All-State selection in baseball...Played baseball at Valparaiso (IN) University...Participated in the 1971 Little League World Series and earned the nickname "Legendary Lloyd" after going 5-for-5 with five home runs (on five swings) and five intentional walks for his Gary (IN) team.

TOMMY SANDT

FIRST BASE COACH

AGE: 50

RESIDES: LaGrange, IL

BATS: Right

HEIGHT: 5'11"

PLAYING POSITION: Infielder

CONTRACT: Signed thru 2001

BORN: 12/22/50 in Brooklyn, NY

WEIGHT: 180

Tommy Sandt assumed the First Base Coaching duties on June 6, 2000, and was re-hired for the 2001 season on Nov. 2, 2000. The 2001 season marks Tommy's 33rd in professional baseball and his 20th with the Pittsburgh organization. He officially returned to the Pirates as a Special Instructor on February 15, 2000, after serving as the Colorado Rockies' First Base Coach during the 1999 campaign. He has spent 14 seasons as a First Base Coach in the major leagues with Pittsburgh (1987-1996, 2000), Florida (1997-98) and Colorado (1999).

An infielder during his playing days, Sandt was Oakland's second round selection in the 1969 June draft. That year he hit .317 for Tri-City and was named Player-of-the-Year in the Northwest League. He made his major league debut with the Athletics on June 29, 1975. In 42 career big-league games, he went 14-for-67 (.209) with three RBI. He retired as a player in 1984.

Tommy actually began his professional coaching career as a player/coach with Portland (Pirates' AAA) in 1980-81 before managing in Pittsburgh's farm system for five seasons (1982-86). He guided his teams to the post-season in three of his five seasons as a manager, winning his division twice and finishing second on three occasions. Sandt led the Hawaii Islanders to the best mark in Triple-A baseball in each of his first two seasons with the club and, in 1984, he was named Pacific Coast League Manager-of-the-Year.

PERSONAL: Thomas James Sandt...Wife's name is Diane...One son; Tom II (8/23/71)...Is a 1969 graduate of Pacifica High School in Garden Grove, CA, where he played baseball and football...Was all-state in baseball...Son pitched in the San Diego organization with Waterloo (Midwest League) in 1993, after completing his career at Northwestern University...Managed Magallanes in the Venezuelan Winter League for three seasons (1983-86) and guided the club to the playoffs all three years...Also enjoys being a grandfather (grandson, Tom III, was born on 3/31/00).

Bruce Tanner was named Bullpen Coach on November 6, 2000.

Tanner has spent the past seven years in the Pittsburgh organization, serving the club as Pitching Coach with Altoona (AA) in 2000. He spent the previous two seasons as the Triple-A Pitching Coach with Nashville after coaching at the Double-A level with Carolina for two years. His association with the Pirates began as Pitching Coach with Augusta (A) in 1994-95.

Bruce, the son of former Bucco skipper Chuck Tanner, was originally selected by the Chicago White Sox in the 4th round of the 1983 June draft and went 1-2 with a 5.33 ERA in 10 major league games (four starts) with the ChiSox. He won his lone big-league game in his debut on 6/12/85. Tanner also spent time as a player in the Oakland, San Francisco and San Diego farm systems.

Following his playing days, Bruce served as a Pitching Coach in the San Diego farm system for four years with Spokane (1990), Charleston (1991), High Desert (1992) and Rancho Cucamonga (1993).

BILL VIRDON

BENCH COACH

AGE: 69, turns 70 on June 9

RESIDES: Springfield, MO

BATS: Left

HEIGHT: 6'0"

PLAYING POSITION: Outfielder

CONTRACT: Signed thru 2001

BORN: 6/9/31 in Hazel Park, MI

THROWS: Right

WEIGHT: 185

Bill Virdon returns to the Pittsburgh organization as the major league Bench Coach for the 2001 season. He was named to his current position on October 30, 2000.

Virdon has amassed more than 40 years of experience in professional baseball as a player, manager and coach. He recently served the Houston Astros as their Bench Coach during the 1997 season, Larry Dierker's first as manager of that club.

Considered one of the finest centerfielders of his day, Bill spent the majority of his 11-year, big-league playing career with the Pirates. He made his major league debut with the St. Louis Cardinals in 1955 after winning the International League batting title with a .333 average with Rochester the previous season.

In 1955, he batted .281, hit 17 home runs and knocked in 68 runs to earn National League Rookie-of-the-Year honors from the BBWAA and The Sporting News. The following season he was traded to Pittsburgh, where he spent the next 10 years. Virdon compiled a career-high .319 average in his first season with the Bucs (1956) and finished second in the N.L. batting race behind Milwaukee's Hank Aaron. He was awarded a Gold Glove for his defensive excellence in 1962. In 1,583 career major league games, Bill combined to hit .267 with 91 home runs and 502 RBI.

After he retired as a player, Virdon managed in the New York Mets' farm system for two seasons before joining the Pirates as a coach under Manager Larry Shepard in 1968. He replaced Danny Murtaugh as manager prior to the 1972 season and the club went on to win the N.L. East title in his first season at the helm, but suffered a heartbreaking loss to the Cincinnati Reds on Bob Moose's infamous wild pitch in the fifth and deciding game of the N.L.C.S. Virdon was then replaced by Murtaugh during the 1973 season (the team was 67-69 at the time). In his two years as Pittsburgh's manager, he went 163-128 (.560).

Virdon also managed the Yankees (1974-75), Astros (1975-1982) and Expos (1983-84) during his major league career. He was named Major League Manager-of-the-Year by both The Sporting News and Associated Press after leading the Yankees to an 89-73 record and a second-place finish in 1974.

With the Astros, he guided the club to the 1980 National League West Division crown and was also at the helm when Houston won the second-half title during the 1981 strike-shortened season. In 1979, he was named United Press International's Manager-of-the-Year after the Astros finished second in the N.L. West. A year later he was once again named Manager-of-the-Year by The Sporting News after Houston won its division for the first time in club history.

Virdon's last managerial assignment was with Montreal in 1983 and 1984. His composite record in 13 years as a major league manager was 995-921 (.519).

Bill served the St. Louis Cardinals as a spring training instructor in 1985 before returning to the Pittsburgh organization as the team's hitting instructor during Jim Leyland's first year as manager in 1986. He then spent three seasons as the Pirates' minor league hitting instructor and spring training instructor before re-joining Leyland's major league staff for four seasons (1992-95).

PERSONAL: William Charles Virdon...Wife's name is Shirley...Three children; Deborah (9/3/52), Linda (7/9/54) and Lisa (10/5/59)...Nicknamed "Quail" by former Pirates broadcaster Bob Prince...Attended Drury College in Springfield, MO...Recipient of the 1994 Pride of the Pirates award, and award given annually since 1990 which recognizes members of the Pirates family, living or dead, who have demonstrated the qualities of sportsmanship, dedication and outstanding character during a lifetime of service. ...Elected to Western Chapter Pennsylvania Sports Hall of Fame in 1995.

DID YOU KNOW... THAT THE PIRATES HAVE NOT OUSTED A MANAGER DURING THE SEASON SINCE DOING SO TO BILL VIRDON IN 1973. WITH LOS ANGELES FIRING BILL RUSSELL AND REPLACING HIM WITH GLENN HOFFMAN DURING THE 1998 REGULAR SEASON, THE PIRATES NOW HAVE THE LONGEST RUN WITHOUT A MID-SEASON FIRING.

Jeff Banister is in his third season as the Pirates' Major League Field Coordinator after spending the previous five years as a manager in the Bucs' minor league system. In his current role, Banister assists the major league coaching staff in various aspects of instruction, both at home and on the road.

Jeff was originally selected by the Pirates in the 25th round of the 1986 June free agent draft and began his professional career with Watertown. He compiled a .247 batting average, 37 home runs and 204 RBI in 515 minor league games. Banister made his major league debut and only big league appearance with the Pirates on 7/23/91. He owns a career major league batting average of 1.000, having singled off Atlanta's Dan Petry @Three Rivers Stadium in his only big league at bat. Jeff went on to miss the entire 1992 season due to right elbow surgery. He has battled bone cancer and osteomyelitis, in addition to having seven operations on his left ankle and leg as a teenager in 1980.

Banister served as a player/coach in Carolina in 1993 before beginning his managerial career in Welland in 1994. He moved on to manage Augusta in 1995 and then on to Lynchburg for 1996 and the first half of the 1997 campaign. Jeff replaced Marc Hill at Carolina for the remainder of the 1997 season and spent the entire 1998 campaign at the Mudcats' helm. He has compiled a 299-330 record (.475) in his five seasons as a manager.

PERSONAL: Jeffrey Todd Banister...Wife's name is Karen...One daughter; Alexandra (6)...Attended LaMarque (TX) High School and the University of Houston.

BEHIND THE SCENES

KENT BIGGERSTAFF HEAD ATHLETIC TRAINER

Kent Biggerstaff is in his 20th year as a trainer with the Pittsburgh Pirates and his 16th as the club's Head Trainer. In addition, he recently completed a six-year term as President of the Professional Baseball Athletic Trainers Society.

Born in Wood River, IL, on November 27, 1947, "Biggie" received an undergraduate degree in math from Southern Illinois University in 1969. He served as general manager and trainer for the New York Mets' Marion (Rookie League) club in the Appalachian League from 1967 to 1969, while he was still attending college. He was a trainer for the Memphis Blues (AA) of the Texas League from 1970 to 1972. Biggerstaff followed that with a five-year stint (1973-1977) with the Mets' Tidewater (AAA) affiliate in the International League. In 1978, he trained for the Milwaukee Brewers' Holyoke (AA) club in the Eastern League before spending two years with their Vancouver (AAA) club in the Pacific Coast League.

He joined the Pirates' organization in 1981 as trainer with Portland (AAA) of the PCL. In 1982, Biggerstaff was named assistant trainer at the major league level. He has been the head trainer for the Pirates since 1986 and has represented the National League at the All-Star Game in 1990 and 1994.

During baseball's off-season, Biggerstaff officiates local high school and college basketball games. He and his wife Earlene make their home in Gibsonia and have one daughter, Ashley (25).

WARREN SIPP HEAD CONDITIONING COORDINATOR

Dr. Warren Sipp joined the Pirates organization in 1986. In his role, Warren is primarily responsible for the year-round conditioning of major league players, but he also designs and oversees workout programs which are utilized throughout the Pirates' minor league system, especially at the Triple and Double-A levels.

Formerly an assistant professor for the University of Pittsburgh's Health, Physical and Recreation Education Department, Sipp had also served as Pitt's varsity sports strength and conditioning coach. He received his Doctor of Philosophy Degree from Pitt in 1983 and had worked at the school since 1969.

A native of Akron, OH, he received his bachelor's degree from the University of Michigan in 1969. He majored in physical education and special education. A three-year letterman on the Wolverines football team, he was honorable mention All-Big Ten fullback in 1967 when he was paired in the backfield with All-American Ron Johnson.

Under Sipp's guidance and direction, the Pirates established a year-round corporate fitness program which is now in its ninth year. He now oversees the brand-new workout facility in the administration building at PNC Park. Warren and his wife Lillie reside in Forest Hills and have two children; Nia (26), who is a fourth-year medical student at the University of Pittsburgh and Carl (23), who is a recent graduate from the University of Virginia.

MIKE SANDOVAL ASSISTANT ATHLETIC TRAINER - CONDITIONING COORDINATOR

Mike Sandoval joined the major league staff when he was named to his current position on November 8, 2000.

The 2001 season will mark Sandoval's 15th as a trainer in the Pittsburgh organization. He began his professional career in 1987 while still in school at New Mexico State University, when he served as a trainer for the Watertown Pirates in the New York-Penn League. Mike also served the Bucs as a trainer at Salem (1988-89), Harrisburg (1990), Carolina (1991), Buffalo (1992-94), Calgary (1995) & Augusta (1996).

During the inaugural season of the Arizona Fall League in 1992, Sandoval served as trainer for Phoenix. He did the same for Peoria this past off-season and with Kauai in the Hawaiian Winter League in both 1993 and 1994.

Mike and his wife, Dodie, reside in Las Cruces, NM, and have one son; Michael, Jr. (14). He is a 1988 graduate of New Mexico State University, where he earned a degree in physical education and sports medicine.

MARK ROGOW ASSISTANT ATHLETIC TRAINER

Mark Rogow joined the major league staff when he was named to his current position on November 8, 2000.

Mark is in his 11th season with the Pittsburgh organization, having spent the past four years as the minor league athletic coordinator. He spent the 1996 season as trainer with Carolina at the Double-A level. Prior to his work with the Mudcats, Rogow worked as both a trainer and minor league rehab coordinator at Bradenton between 1992-95, where he developed and implemented rehabilitational programs for major and minor league players. He began his association with the Bucs as an intern in the Gulf Coast League in 1991.

Rogow also served as head trainer at the Junior World Tennis Championships in 1994 and 1995 and served as the trainer for the Pirates' Arizona Fall League team in 1994. In addition, he was a trainer for the Honolulu Sharks in the winter of 1996. Mark, who is a 1991 graduate of the University of Florida, resides in Pittsburgh, PA.

ROGER WILSON EQUIPMENT MANAGER

The 2001 season marks Roger's 26th in the major leagues and his 10th as the Equipment Manager of the Pittsburgh Pirates. He was named to his current position in December of 1991 after spending the previous 16 years as the visiting clubhouse manager for the Cincinnati Reds. He is a native of Cincinnati who graduated from Green Hills High School in 1971 and earned a degree in education from Wilmington College (OH) in 1976.

Wilson is responsible for ordering all equipment for the major league club in addition to maintaining the Pirates clubhouse at PNC Park. He also oversees the transfer and distribution of personal luggage and baseball equipment during team travel. He and his wife Sherry have two daughters, Ashley (17) and Whitney (12), and reside in Wexford.

SPORTS MEDICINE STAFF

DR. PATRICK DeMEO

Dr. Patrick DeMeo began his tenure as Sports Medicine consultant and coordinator of services provided by Allegheny General Hospital for the Pittsburgh Pirates during the summer of 2000.

DeMeo is currently the Director of the Division of Sports Medicine and Vice Chairman of Clinical Affairs for the Department of Orthopaedic Surgery at Allegheny General Hospital. In addition, he serves as Assistant Professor of Orthopaedic Surgery for the MCP Hahnemann University School of Medicine.

He received his medical degree from Wayne State University in 1986 and served his internship and residencies at the Downstate Medical Center at the State University of New York. Dr. DeMeo was the recipient of a fellowship award from the Cleveland Clinic Foundation and is certified by the American Board of Orthopaedic Surgery.

In addition to his service with the Pirates, DeMeo is also team physician for Duquesne University.

Dr. DeMeo lives in Sewickley with his wife Anita and their two children; son Patrick (6) and daughter Kaitlyn (4).

DR. JACK FAILLA

Dr. Jack Failla joined the Pirates as team orthopedist in 1981. A native of New Castle, PA, Dr. Failla received his undergraduate and medical degree from Marquette University; he graduated with a bachelor's degree in biology/math in 1964 and became an M.D. in 1968. While at Marquette, he played football and basketball.

Failla performed an orthopedic surgery residency under former Pirates' team orthopedist Dr. Albert Ferguson at the University of Pittsburgh from 1973 to 1976. He also served in the United States Navy from 1969 to 1972 as a lieutenant, flight surgeon and medical examiner.

Jack and his wife Carol reside in Franklin Park and have four children: Anna Maria (33), Kristine (32), Paul (28) and Mary Beth (26). His son Paul was selected by the California Angels in the third round of the 1994 June free agent draft and spent four seasons in their minor league system. He participated in the inaugural season of the XFL (quarterback for the Chicago Enforcers).

DR. JOSEPH COROSO

Dr. Joseph Coroso is in his 21st year as the Pirates' team physician, having joined the club in 1980. The West Hartford, CT, native received his bachelor's degree from Holy Cross College in 1973 and his medical degree from Albany (NY) Medical College in 1977.

He served his three-year residency at Pittsburgh's St. Margaret Memorial Hospital and was the hospital's assistant chief resident in his final year. Dr. Coroso currently has a private practice in St. Mary's, PA.

Joe is the Medical Director of The Sports Medicine Center at Elk Regional Health Center.

Joe and his wife Mary Helen have three daughters; Angela (17), Mary (15), Kaitlyn (12), and make their home in St. Mary's.

DR. EDWARD SNELL

Dr. Edward Snell has served as a medical consultant for a number of professional and amateur sports venues, including the Pittsburgh Pirates, the Pittsburgh Penguins, the Pittsburgh Marathon, The Great Race, the NCAA tournament and the World Boxing Council. He was Medical Director of the Sports Medicine Clinic at The Rivers Club in Pittsburgh from 1995-1998.

Snell is currently a senior attending staff physician with Allegheny Orthopaedic Associates, and is an Assistant Professor of Orthopaedic Surgery with the MCP Hahnemann University School of Medicine. He is also a director of the Primary Care Sports Medicine Fellowship Program at Allegheny General Hospital in Pittsburgh.

A native of Harrisburg, PA, Dr. Snell received undergraduate degrees in mathematics and chemistry from Franklin and Marshall College in Lancaster, PA, and his medical degree from the Pennsylvania State University College of Medicine in 1991. He is a member of the American College of Sports Medicine, the American Medical Society of Sports Medicine, and the National Athletic Trainers Association. Snell joined the Pirates as a team physician during the 2000 season.

DID YOU KNOW... That Jason Kendall became just the third player - and the first Pirate ever - to hit for the cycle in the 30-year history of Three Rivers Stadium when he did so against the Cardinals on May 19, 2000. The other players to hit for the cycle at Three Rivers were St. Louis' Joe Torre on June 27, 1973, and San Francisco's Jeff Kent on May 3, 1999.

2000 NOTES

FOR THE RECORD: The Bucs finished the regular season with a 69-93 record and a fifth-place finish in the Central Division, 26.0 games behind first-place St. Louis and three games behind fourth-place Houston...The 69 wins were the fewest by the club since it also finished 69-93 in 1998...The Pirates were at the .500 level just once (at 2-2 on 4/7) and dipped a season-low 27 games under .500 (61-88 on 9/17).

SKIPPER LAMONT: In his four seasons as manager of the Pirates, Gene Lamont posted a 295-352 record (.456 winning percentage)...Among the 34 men who have managed the club, Gene ranks 10th in victories...He has gone 553-562 in his eight-year career as a manager...Gene won his first game with the Bucs on 4/1/97 and picked up career wins #300 (7/5/97), #400 (8/25/98) and #500 (5/13/00) while managing the Pirates.

THRU THE GATES: The Pirates drew 1,748,908 fans in 2000, the fifth-largest single-season attendance figure and the most to see the Bucs since 1992 (1,829,395)...The paid crowd of 55,351 which witnessed the final game ever @Three Rivers Stadium on 10/1 represents the largest crowd ever to see a regular season game @Three Rivers (it eclipsed the previous high of 54,399 from opening day this season - 4/4 vs. Houston).

THRU THE GATES II: Other attendance records which were set on October 1 were: largest Sunday crowd (previous high was 51,726 vs. San Diego on 6/6/76); highest three-date series - 138,937 (previous high was 128,062 vs. Mets between Oct. 1-3, 1990); largest crowd to ever see the Bucs play @Three Rivers (previous high was 51,580 on June 5, 1977).

BLINDED BY THE LIGHT: The Pirates went 15-34 in day games, which included a 3-17 record in afternoon games played @Three Rivers Stadium...They lost their last 13 day games at home, winning for the last time on Sunday, May 14, vs. Milwaukee...Their other two afternoon delights @Three Rivers came on Saturday, April 15, against the Mets and on Thursday, April 6, vs. Houston.

WILD THINGS: The Pittsburgh pitchers threw a club record 67 wild pitches this season (previous high was 66, set in 1988).

NEAR PERFECT: The Pirates went 57-1 when they led after eight innings...They had won 53 straight games when they had a lead after 8.0 innings prior to losing in Colorado on August 9...They were 39-0 this season and won their last 14 games in 1999...Ironically, the club's previous loss when leading after 8.0 innings came on 8/24/99 vs. Colorado (they led 2-1, but Mike Williams surrendered two runs in the 9th and the Bucs lost 3-2).

ERA TAKES BEATING: Among the 16 National League teams, the Bucs ranked 12th with a 4.94 ERA, the club's highest ERA since a 5.22 mark in 1953...Since 1900, only three Pittsburgh pitching staffs have posted a higher ERA (5.24 in 1930, 5.22 in 1953 and 4.96 in 1950)...The club's highest ERA ever was a 5.97 mark in 1890, followed by a 5.60 showing in 1894.

HISTORY MAKER: With a .315 batting average, 35 home runs and 123 RBI, Brian Giles became the first Pittsburgh player ever to hit at least .300 with 30+ homers and 100+ RBI in back-to-back seasons.

GILES & THE RBI: Brian Giles led the club with 123 RBI...That figure represents the seventh-highest total in club history for a single season and is the most by a Bucco since Willie Stargell knocked in 125 in 1971...The club record for most RBI in a season remains 131, established by Paul Waner in 1927.

TWO-BAGGERS: The Pirates tallied a club record 320 doubles, one more than the previous high of 319 hit in 1996.

SHUFFLING THE DECK: Manager Gene Lamont used 122 different lineups this season...He used a total of 108 in 1999, 106 in 1998 and 108 in his first season, 1997.

8 WAS GREAT: The Pirates won a season-high eight consecutive games between September 1-8; their longest streak since winning nine in a row in 1998 between August 16-27.

9 WAS NOT SO DIVINE: Immediately following their eight-game winning streak, the Pirates lost a season-high nine consecutive games between September 9-17; their longest streak since losing nine in a row in 1995 between August 5-15.

A FIRST: The Pirates lost nine games in a row right after winning eight straight to start the month of September...While there have been other teams that have had back-to-back winning and losing streaks of at least eight games, the Bucs hold the distinction of being the only team ever to accomplish this twice...In 1998, the Pirates won nine in a row between August 16-26 (also one tie) and then lost eight straight between August 28 and September 5.

2000 NOTES

TWIN BILLS: The Pirates played three doubleheaders in 2000 (two at home and one on the road)...They split with the Dodgers @Three Rivers on 8/1 and swept the Reds in Pittsburgh on 9/8...They also split with the Brewers in Milwaukee on 9/23...Prior to 8/1, one would have had to look back to the glory days of the '70's to find the last doubleheader played between the Pirates and Reds @Three Rivers Stadium...It occurred on August 22, 1975, with the Bucs sweeping the twin-bill by scores of 7-2 and 4-2.

HOME & ROAD: The Bucs went 37-44 at home and 32-49 on the road...Their home record was the worst showing since going 36-44 in 1996...The Pirates have not posted a winning road record since 1992 (43-38).

WINNING ROAD TRIPS: The Bucs posted just two winning road trips all season (13 trips total)...They went 5-1 to St. Louis (2-1) and Chicago (3-0) between May 2-7 and 6-0 to San Diego (3-0) and Los Angeles (3-0) between September 1-6.

CLOSE, BUT...: Pittsburgh finished the 2000 campaign with a 17-30 record in one-run games (11-12 at home and just 6-18 on the road)...The Bucs also went 8-11 in extra-inning affairs.

FREEBIES: Bucco hurlers walked a club record 711 batters this season - the previous high of 633 was established in 1999...Among all major league teams, only the Brewers (728) walked more batters...When Pittsburgh pitchers issued fewer than three free passes in a game, the club went 26-11.

DANDY VANDY: John Vander Wal hit safely in a club-high 16 straight games between 8/29 and 9/16...It was the longest streak by a Pittsburgh player since Al Martin had a club-best, 20-game hitting streak in 1999.

THE CENTURY MARK: Jason Kendall became the first Pittsburgh catcher ever to score 100 runs, finishing with a team-high 112 (he established the previous club record for runs scored by a catcher with 95 in 1998)...Brian Giles scored a total of 111 runs, giving the Pirates two players with 100 runs or more for the second straight year.

100-100-100: With at least 100 runs scored, 100 RBI and 100 walks, Brian Giles became just the third Pittsburgh player to record triple digits in each of those three offensive categories...Barry Bonds (109-103-127) did so in 1992 and Ralph Kiner accomplished the trifecta in four consecutive years between 1948 and 1951.

RAINED OUT: The Pirates' home/season opener on 4/3 was postponed due to rain - the first time since 1982 that the club's season and/or home opener was postponed...On 4/6/82, the Bucs and Expos' 12:35 tilt was postponed due to cold weather and snow...The clubs attempted to play again on the 7th and 8th, but were once again postponed due to the cold temps.

TARPLESS: For the first time since the 1991 season, the tarps covering some upper deck seats were removed for opening day...The Pirates attracted a then regular season record crowd of 54,399 for the opener (the previous record for a regular season crowd was 54,274 - set on 4/8/91).

THE FINAL ONE: The April 4th game also marked the final opener ever @Three Rivers Stadium...Dock Ellis defeated Chris Short and the Phillies in the first one on 4/6/71...In the last 30 years, the Pirates have gone 13-17 in home openers held @Three Rivers.

OPENING DAY MISC: Jason Schmidt made his first opening day start...Francisco Cordova had received the nod the previous two years...The Pirates had not hit a home run on opening day since 1995 (Jay Bell) prior to John Vander Wal's blast off Shane Reynolds in the 7th inning...Overall the Pirates have now hit 45 home runs on opening day and they have allowed 60.

ALMOST: Francisco Cordova, who tossed 9.0 hitless frames and combined with Ricardo Rincon on a 10-inning no-hitter vs. Houston on 7/12/97, hurled 7.1 innings of no-hit ball against the Astros @Three Rivers in his first start of the season on 4/6...Mitch Meluskey broke up the no-no with a one-out double in the 8th inning and scored on a double by Tim Bogar (final score: Bucs win 10-1).

THAT'S A FIRST: The pitching match-up of Jimmy Anderson and Brian Anderson on 4/8 in Arizona marked the first time a pair of "Andersons" opposed each other in a major league game (no-decisions for both in a 6-5 Diamondbacks victory)...They met again on 5/23 in Arizona on 5/23 (Brian beat Jimmy, 6-1) and on 8/13 in Pittsburgh (no-decisions for both in a 7-6 Diamondbacks win).

MOTHER NATURE: The Bucs started their first five home games with an average temperature of 49.4 degrees (44, 49, 66, 46 & 42 respectively) and had one rain out (opening day)...It rained (or snowed) on four of the first five home dates.

OUCH! The Pirates allowed double-digit runs in back-to-back games on 4/16 and 4/18 for the first time since losing, 10-2, to Atlanta on 5/12/97 and beating the Rockies, 15-10, on 5/14/97...The last time the club allowed 10 or more runs in back-to-back losses was 1996 (10-7 and 12-10 losses @Colorado on 5/20 and 5/21)...The Bucs went on to surrender 10 or more runs in back-to-back losses three more times in 2000 (6/23-24, 8/2-3 and 9/15-16).

THE LONG ONE: Pittsburgh and Florida played 14 innings (4:31) @Pro Player Stadium on 4/20 (lost, 3-2) - the Pirates longest-inning game since losing a 4-3 decision in 14 innings @Miami last year on 5/20 (Mike Williams also suffered the loss in that affair)...The Bucs scored each of their two runs in the 1st inning and were then shutout for 13 frames...The Pirates' bullpen struck out 14 batters in just 6.2 innings of work.

WHACKY: On Saturday, April 22, Kris Benson, who is a 1994 graduate of Sprayberry High School in Marietta, GA (25 minutes north of Atlanta), started for Pittsburgh and John Burkett, a 1983 graduate of Beaver High School in Beaver, PA (30 minutes north of Pittsburgh), started for Atlanta.

FIRST 18: Among their first 18 games of the season, the Pirates played all four of the 1999 post-season participants - teams with a combined record of 397-252 (.612 winning %) in '99...In the 18 games, the Bucs went 1-2 against Houston ('99 NL Central champs), 1-2 in Arizona ('99 NL West champs), 2-1 against the Expos, 1-2 against the Mets ('99 wild card winner), 1-2 in Florida and 0-3 against Atlanta ('99 NL East champs).

AT THE TOP: Jason Kendall appeared in the lead-off spot 17 times during the season...Since 1981, the only catcher to lead off more than 16 games in a season was Craig Biggio, who led off 17 games with Houston in 1989...In fact, Kendall and Biggio are the only catchers to lead off more than 10 times in a season since 1981 (Biggio also led off 14 times while catching in 1991 and Jason led off 15 times in 1999).

GRAND TIME: John Vander Wal hit a grand slam on 4/27, one day after Pat Meares did the same against the Padres...The last time the Pirates hit grand slams in consecutive games was on September 15 (Richie Hebner vs. Chicago) and September 16 (Marvell Wynne vs. Montreal) of 1983 (both @Three Rivers Stadium)...The major league record for most consecutive games with a grand slam is three; shared by the Milwaukee Brewers (April 7-9, 1978) and the Detroit Tigers (August 10-12, 1993).

SACRIFICIAL LAMBS: On Saturday, April 29, the Reds (three) and Pirates (two) tied a major league record by producing five sacrifice flies between them...It was last accomplished with the Giants and Rockies on October 1, 1995, and has now been done six times in the National League and 13 times overall.

APRIL: The Pirates went 9-14 during the month of April and finished the month tied for 4th place, 7.5 games behind the first-place Cardinals...Last year the Bucs went 9-12 in April and were tied for 4th place, 3.5 games out of 1st...The Pirates have not had a winning month of April since going 12-10 in 1994.

THE COMEBACK: On Saturday, May 6, the Pirates scored six times in the 9th inning to erase a four-run deficit @Wrigley Field...It was the club's biggest come-from-behind victory since 4/21/91 when they scored six runs in the 11th inning to turn a 12-7 loss into a 13-12 win over the Cubs at Three Rivers...The inning was also their largest output in the 9th frame since scoring seven runs in a 12-4 win over the Expos on 6/27/92 @Olympic Stadium.

AWARD WINNER: Brian Giles was named National League Player-of-the-Week for the week of 5/2-7...In six games, he hit .400 (8-for-20) with two doubles, three homers, 12 RBI and eight runs...He won the award twice in 1999 (5/3 - 5/9 and 8/30 - 9/5).

10+: The Pirates scored a season-high 16 runs on 7/28 vs. San Diego...They plated 11 runs on 5/6 (11-9) and then again on 5/7 (11-3), the club's first back-to-back posting of double-digit runs since 7/16-17 in 1999 (11-3 and 13-10 victories over Cleveland)...The last time the Pirates produced three straight games with 10 or more runs was August 27-28, 1930 (10-8 win @Chicago and 16-12 and 11-2 doubleheader sweep vs. Cincinnati).

SOJO WITH THE MOJO: Luis Sojo homered in three straight games between 5/5-7 (all three games @Wrigley Field)...Brian Giles also homered in a club-high three consecutive games between 5/12-14 and again between 8/20-22...The last Bucco to homer in four straight was Barry Bonds in 1987 (8/18-21).

DOUBLE-A TO THE BIGS: Brian O'Connor was recalled from Altoona (AA) and made his major league debut against the Brewers on Saturday, May 13 (no-decision in an 11-8 victory - 2.0ip/7h/6r/6er/2bb/0so)...The last Pittsburgh pitcher to be called up from Double-A to start for the Pirates was Steve Parris in 1995...He was recalled from Carolina on 6/18, where he went 9-1 with a 2.51 ERA in 14 starts...Parris made his big-league debut on 6/21 vs. San Francisco and received a no-decision in the Bucs' 6-5 loss (3.2ip/4h/2r/2er/1bb/4so) @Three Rivers.

RIDING THE CYCLE: On May 19, Jason Kendall became just the third player - and the first Pirate ever - to hit for the cycle @Three Rivers Stadium (also Jeff Kent on 5/3/99 and Joe Torre on 6/27/73)...Kendall became the first catcher to hit for the cycle since Boston's Rich Gedman did so on 9/18/85 and the first backstop in the National League to do so since Randy Hundley on 8/11/66 (game one - 11 innings)...Jason also became the 19th different Pittsburgh player to accomplish the feat and the first since Gary Redus on 8/25/89 @Cincinnati.

A ROUGH ONE: Pittsburgh's 19-4 loss to the Cardinals on Saturday, May 19 was the club's worst since suffering a 19-3 loss to the Dodgers @Three Rivers Stadium on August 25, 1995...The Bucs also surrendered 19 runs in a 19-8 loss @The Astrodome last season on May 11.

HUH?: Pittsburgh's 2-1 win @Colorado on May 25 marked just the second time in 24 games played between the Pirates and Rockies @Coors Field that the winning team scored less than five runs (the Rox beat the Bucs, 4-1, on 6/4/95, which was Pittsburgh's third game played there).

DRAFT DAY: With the 19th pick in the First-Year Player Draft, the Pirates selected left-handed pitcher Sean Burnett...The 17-year-old southpaw went 10-0 with two saves and a 0.81 ERA in 10 games for Wellington (FL) High School this past year (60.0ip/23h/17bb/97so)...Wellington High is the same school that produced righthander Bobby Bradley, the Pirates 1st-round selection in last year's draft...Burnett went 2-1 with a 4.06 ERA in eight games (six starts) with Bradenton.

MIGHTY MO: With nine hits in back-to-back games on 6/10-11, Warren Morris fell one hit shy of the club record of 10, held by Rennie Stennett in 1975 (9/16-17) and Roberto Clemente in 1970 (8/22-23)...Warren needed three hits vs. Atlanta on 6/12 to tie Stennett's club record for most hits (12) in three consecutive games (9/16-18, 1975), but went 1-for-5 in that affair.

WORKING OVERTIME: The Bucs played three straight extra-inning games with the Royals between 6/9-11...The last time the club played three straight extra-inning affairs was July 7, 8 and 10, 1987, against the Giants (one win, one loss) and the Padres (win).

YOUNG GUN: Bronson Arroyo made his first major league start on June 13 at the age of 23 years, 3 months and 20 days, just slightly older than Brian O'Connor, who started for the Pirates on 5/13 at the age of 23 years, 4 months and 9 days...Arroyo was the youngest pitcher to start a game for the Pirates since John Hope (22 years, 8 months and 8 days) lost an 11-0 decision (5.0ip/5h/3r/2er/1bb/1so) to the Padres @Three Rivers on 8/29/93 (game two).

A "SHEA" MED: The confines of Shea Stadium have not been kind to the Pirates in recent memory...The Bucs, who went 1-5 there in 1999, have lost seven straight in New York and have gone 4-21 in their last 25 games...Of those 21 losses, 10 have been by one run, four have been by two runs and four have come in extra innings...The Mets swept the Pirates in their only visit this season (June 23-25) and also took three straight to end the '99 campaign.

LEGGIN' IT OUT: Jason Kendall tripled twice @Philadelphia on 7/1 - the first Bucco to do so in a game since Orlando Merced legged out a pair of triples @Mile High Stadium on 9/4/93...The club record of three triples in a game has been accomplished five times - the last time by Roberto Clemente on September 8, 1958 vs. Cincinnati.

HOMER TIME: The three homers hit by Jason Kendall, Wil Cordero and Pat Meares in the 9th inning @Wrigley Field on 7/4 marked the first time since 9/16/97 that the Pirates homered three times in an inning (Al Martin, Kevin Young and Shawon Dunston in the 4th vs. Montreal).

HEY NOW, YOU'RE AN ALL STAR: Brian Giles and Jason Kendall were named to the National League All-Star team...Kendall started in place of the injured Mike Piazza - the first Bucco catcher to start an All-Star Game since Smoky Burgess in 1961...He caught the first four innings and went 0-for-2 at the plate...Giles entered the game in the 6th inning (RF) and went hitless in two at bats...The last season in which the Pirates had more than one player named to the mid-summer classic was 1993 (Jay Bell and Andy Van Slyke)...It marks the third time in his five seasons that Kendall has been named to the squad and the first time for Giles.

CENTURY MARKS: On July 17, Brian Giles hit his 100th career home run, a two-run shot off Darren Dreifort in the 3rd inning @Dodger Stadium...In the same game, Kevin Young hit his 100th homer in a Pittsburgh uniform, becoming the 16th player to do so...He joins: Willie Stargell (475), Ralph Kiner (301), Roberto Clemente (240), Barry Bonds (176), Dave Parker (166), Frank Thomas (163), Bill Mazeroski (138), Al Oliver (135), Richie Hebner (128), Dick Stuart (117), Andy Van Slyke (117), Bill Robinson (109), Paul Waner (108), Donn Clendenon (106) and Bob Robertson (106).

BAD BOY: Pitching Coach Pete Vuckovich was suspended for three days for arguing with and "bumping" John Hirschbeck @Shea Stadium on June 23...He appealed the suspension and it was reduced to two games...He served the suspension on July 20 and July 21.

GENERAL

OUCH! On August 3 Jason Kendall was hit for the 11th time this season and for the 100th time in his five-year career...He ended the season with 104 career HBP, which ranks fourth among active players behind Craig Biggio (169), Brady Anderson (144) and Chuck Knoblauch (121).

A GRAND RETURN: The Pirates had gone a season-high six straight games and 59 innings without hitting a home run prior to Jason Kendall's two-run shot in the 4th inning on August 12...Aramis Ramirez also hit his second career grand slam in the 8th inning that night (Pirates beat Arizona, 9-6).

SCHMIDT OUT FOR SEASON: Righthander Jason Schmidt, on the D.L. since 6/20, underwent season-ending arthroscopic surgery on his right shoulder on August 17...An MRI exam taken on August 8 revealed partial fraying of the rotator cuff and possible fraying of the labrum.

AWARD WINNER: Brian Giles shared National League Player-of-the-Week honors with Colorado's Todd Helton for the week of 8/12-20...In six games, he hit .523 (11-for-21) with three doubles, three homers and eight RBI...He also won the award twice in 1999 (5/3 - 5/9 and 8/30 - 9/5).

MAKING PAPA PROUD: In 11 career major league games while playing with his father Fred coaching the opposition, Jason Kendall has gone 21-for-43 (.488) with four doubles, a home run, seven runs scored, three RBI and a stolen base.

1-HITTER: Kris Benson (8.0ip) and Josias Manzanillo (1.0ip) combined to toss a one-hitter over the Giants on 8/29 - the only hit being a one-out single by Barry Bonds in the 1st inning...The previous one-hitter thrown by the Bucs came on 4/8/97, when Steve Cooke (7.0ip), Rich Loiselle (1.0ip) and John Ericks (1.0ip) combined to do so @San Diego (Steve Finley singled in 1st).

BONDS #2: Barry Bonds hit his 89th career home run @Three Rivers Stadium on August 30 (he hit 83 while playing with the Pirates)...He ranks 2nd on the all-time home run list, trailing only Willie Stargell (147)...Dave Parker ranks third with 88.

UGH-UST: The Pirates went 8-21 in August, posting fewer than 10 wins in a month (minimum of 25 games) for the first time since September of 1998 (5-22).

THE NEW GUY: Alex Hernandez made his major league debut as a starter @first base on Friday, September 1 and went 2-for-5 with an RBI...He collected his first big-league hit in his third at bat - a single to left field off Woody Williams on a 3-0 pitch in the 6th inning.

1 RUN SHY: With their 12-1 victory on September 4, the Pirates fell one run shy of matching their biggest run output ever @Dodger Stadium; a 13-run win on June 24, 1965...The Bucs also scored 11 runs @Chavez Ravine on four other occasions.

AT DODGER STADIUM: The Bucs lost their first two games of the 2000 season in the City of Angels on July 16-17, but then won their last four...The Pirates' three-game sweep in LA between 9/4-6 was their first @Dodger Stadium since 1988 (July 8-10).

PERFECTO!!: The Pirates produced a 6-0 road trip to San Diego (3-0) and Los Angeles (3-0) to begin the month of September...The club's previous perfect road trip (minimum of six games) was a 6-0 trip to St. Louis (3-0) and Philadelphia (3-0) between May 27 and June 2, 1991...Since divisional play began in 1969, the Bucs had never before had a perfect trip to California (they came close with a 7-1 trip in 1996, a 7-1 trip in 1991 and a 9-1 trip in 1983).

TEN-RUN FIELD: Bucco hurlers posted a 10.95 ERA (58.1ip/71er) in the club's seven games in Houston this season...The Pirates went 0-7 at Enron Field and were out-scored 71-42...The Astros hit 18 homers in the seven games and the Bucs hit 10.

A SWIPE AT HISTORY: With his stolen base in the 1st inning @Philadelphia on 9/18, Jason Kendall became the first catcher ever to steal at least 20 bases in a season three times (three other backstops swiped 20 or more twice)...Jason stole 22 bases in 1999 and a career-high 26 in 1998 (a National League record for catchers)...Kendall finished the season with a team-high 22 swipes.

WHO LET THE DOGS OUT!: The Pirates erupted for nine runs in the 6th inning @Philadelphia on Wednesday, September 20, - their largest out-pout of runs in a frame since scoring nine times in the 8th inning during a 15-10 victory over the Rockies in Pittsburgh on May 14, 1997.....woof!

BAD BOY II: First baseman Kevin Young was suspended for two games for arguing with and "bumping" first base umpire Eric Cooper @County Stadium on September 21...He served the suspension on September 28 and September 29.

THE FINAL CHAPTER: The Pirates went 16-13 in September after winning a total of just eight games in August (8-21)...They went 11-12 in September of '99 and have now posted their first winning final month since 1992 (21-8).

THE FINAL 3: The Pirates hosted the Chicago Cubs in their final series ever @Three Rivers Stadium between September 29 and October 1...The Pirates won the first two games, but lost, 10-9, in the finale...Ironically, the last three games played @Forbes Field in 1970 were also against the Cubs...The Pirates swept the three-game series between June 27-28 (DH) by scores of 2-1 (Dock Ellis over Ferguson Jenkins), 3-2 (Dave Giusti over Bill Hands) and 4-1 (Jim Nelson over Milt Pappas)...In addition, the final Bucco game played at Exposition Park came against the Cubs on June 29, 1909...The Pirates won that tilt, 8-1.

Now in their 115th National League season, the Pittsburgh Pirates own a history filled with World Championships, legendary players and some of baseball's most dramatic games and moments.

The Pirates' roots in Pittsburgh actually date back to April 15, 1876, when the Pittsburgh Alleghenies brought professional baseball to the city by playing their first game at Union Park. In 1877, the Alleghenies were accepted into the minor-league International Association, but disbanded the following year.

Baseball returned to Pittsburgh for good in 1882 when the Alleghenies reformed and joined the American Association, a rival of the National League. After the 1886 season, the Kansas City franchise was expelled from the N.L. and Pittsburgh President William A. Nimmick's application for membership was accepted.

On April 30, 1887, the Alleghenies defeated the defending league-champion Chicago White Stockings, 6-2, before a crowd of nearly 10,000 at Recreation Park. The victorious beginning was not an indication of things to come, however, as the team managed to finish higher than fifth only once in the 13 remaining seasons of the century. In 1890, the Alleghenies' roster was demolished when key players jumped to a new rival to the National League — the Players League. They staggered to a club-record 113 losses as the two leagues engaged in a bitter battle over talent.

When the Players League folded after only one season, all players were expected to return to the clubs they played for in 1889. But Pittsburgh signed Louis Bierbauer, a second baseman with Brooklyn of the Players League who had spent the previous four seasons with the Philadelphia Athletics. The A's and their American Association brethren immediately accused Pittsburgh of "pirating" Bierbauer away from them. Pittsburgh kept the player and the nickname and became known as the Pirates thereafter.

The fortunes of the Pirates turned in 1900 when the National League reduced its membership from 12 to eight teams. As part of the move, Barney Dreyfuss, owner of the defunct Louisville club, acquired controlling interest of the Pirates. In the largest player transaction in Pirate history, Dreyfuss brought 14 players with him from the Louisville roster, including Hall of Famers Honus Wagner, Fred Clarke and Rube Waddell — plus standouts Deacon Phillippe, Chief Zimmer, Claude Ritchey and Tommy Leach. All would play significant roles as the Pirates became the league's dominant franchise, winning pennants in 1901, 1902 and 1903 and a World championship in 1909.

Wagner, dubbed "The Flying Dutchman," was the game's premier player during the decade, winning seven batting titles and leading the majors in hits (1,850) and RBI (956) from 1900-1909. One of the pioneers of the game, Dreyfuss is sometimes called "The Father of the World Series" because he challenged Henry Killilea, the owner of the American League champion Boston Pilgrims, to a post-season playoff in 1903 to determine who was baseball's best team. On October 1, 1903, Phillippe defeated the legendary Cy Young, 7-3, in the first World Series game ever played. Boston, however, later emerged as the Series winner, overcoming a three-games-to-one deficit to win the best-of-nine competition, five games to three.

The Pirates finished as runner-up three times in the next five years before getting another shot at a World Series title in 1909.

HISTORY

The Bucs won a club-record 110 games that year with three pitchers — Howie Camnitz (25), Vic Willis (22) and Lefty Leifield (19) combining for 66 victories. The Series pitted the league's batting champions — Wagner and Detroit's Ty Cobb against each other, but rookie pitcher Babe Adams, who was 12-3 during the regular season, emerged as the Series hero for the Pirates.

While Camnitz, Willis and Leifield failed to win a game, Adams won three, including a six-hit shutout in the seventh and deciding game. It was the last of four titles the Pirates would win under Clarke, who managed the club until 1915.

The 1909 season also marked the beginning of a new era in ballparks as the Pirates christened Forbes Field on June 30th that year. Since 1891, the Pirates had called Exposition Park — which was located on virtually the same site as Three Rivers Stadium — their home. Described as the "Hialeah of Ballparks" when it opened, Forbes Field would remain the home of the Pirates for six decades and would host many great moments.

Pittsburgh sank to the league's second division for most of the next decade, but by the early 1920's — with an influx of outstanding talent which included future Hall of Famers Pie Traynor, Kiki Cuyler, Rabbit Maranville and Max Carey — Pittsburgh was again a contender. After three straight third-place finishes from 1922 to 1924, the Pirates won the N.L. title by eight and a half games over the second-place New York Giants in 1925.

The Series matched Pittsburgh against the Washington Senators, who jumped out to a three-games-to-one lead. The Pirates, however, bounced back to win the final three games and the Series. Their miraculous comeback included a 15-hit pounding of Hall of Famer Walter "Big Train" Johnson in Game Seven.

In 1926, a rookie named Paul Waner joined the Bucs and batted .336. A year later, his brother Lloyd joined him and belted out 223 hits for a club rookie record .355 average and the Pirates were again National League champions. Paul, who was nicknamed "Big Poison" — batted .300 or better 14 times, captured three batting titles and collected 200 or more hits in eight different seasons. He was named the league's most valuable player in 1927 and went on to compile 3,152 hits and a .333 career batting average. Lloyd — who was tagged "Little Poison" — hit .300 or better in 10 of his first 12 seasons, compiled a career mark of .316 and accumulated 2,450 hits. Both were elected to the Hall of Fame.

The 1927 World Series featured the Pirates against the New York Yankees famed "Murderers' Row" with Babe Ruth and Lou Gehrig who swept Pittsburgh in four straight games. The next 33 years, Pirate fans went without a pennant winner, although they were not denied their share of great players and great moments.

The Waners were consistently among baseball's premier hitters during the 1930's with Paul amassing more hits (1,959) during the decade than any player in baseball. Traynor was one of the era's best all-around players and is generally regarded as one of the finest third basemen ever to play the game. Shortstop Arky Vaughan topped the .300-mark in each of his 10 seasons with the Pirates (1932-1941) and his .385 average in 1935 has gone unequalled by any National League performer. He, too, is enshrined at Cooperstown.

Hall of Famer Ralph Kiner won or shared the N.L. home run title in each of the seven seasons that he wore a Pirates uniform (1946-52) which is a streak that has never been matched in either league. In 1956, Pirate first baseman Dale Long hit home runs in a record eight straight games between May 19th and May 28th (mark was tied by Don Mattingly in 1987 and Ken Griffey Jr. in 1993). Three years later, Harvey Haddix hurled what many consider the greatest game ever pitched when he retired 36 straight Milwaukee Braves hitters over 12 innings on May 26, 1959. The same year, ElRoy Face won 17 straight games in relief.

Though the Pirates failed to finish higher than seventh from 1950 through 1957, the foundation for another championship was being put into place. Standout players were added throughout the decade, including Bill Mazeroski, Dick Groat, Vernon Law, Bob Friend, Bill Virgon, Face and future Hall of Famer Roberto Clemente.

In 1956, Pirate owner John Galbreath hired Joe L. Brown as general manager. With the club languishing in last place at 36-67 midway through the 1957 campaign, Brown promoted coach Danny Murtaugh to field manager. Within three seasons, the Bucs were again champions of the National League and again matched against the powerful New York Yankees in the World Series. This time the Bronx Bombers featured Mickey Mantle and Roger Maris.

The 1960 World Series remains one of the most incredible post-season encounters ever on record. The Yankees won Game Two, Game Three and Game Six by a combined score of 38-7, but the Pirates used great pitching, defense and timely hitting to stretch the Series to a seventh game at Forbes Field. Pittsburgh took a 9-7 lead into the ninth — thanks to Hal Smith's three-run homer in the eighth — but the Yankees came up with two runs in the top of the ninth to tie the game. The game and the Series ended, however, in the bottom of the ninth as Mazeroski belted what is perhaps the most dramatic home run in baseball history off Ralph Terry. Mazeroski was the only player in baseball history ever to end a World Series with a home run until Joe Carter of Toronto accomplished the feat in the 1993 fall classic.

During the 1960's, Clemente established himself among the game's elite players. He collected more hits (1,877) than anyone during the decade and would go on to reach the 3,000-hit plateau in 1972. During his marvelous career, he topped the .300 mark 13 times, won four batting titles and was named the National League's Most Valuable Player in 1966.

During the 1970's, the Pirates were again among baseball's premier teams. In that 10-year span, they won six division titles and finished as low as third only once. In the first 25 years of divisional play, the Bucs won more games (2,100) and finished first more often (nine times) than any other N.L. East club. The Pirates put together a 2,100-1,878 record during that period (.528 winning %).

The Pirates captured two more World Championships during the 1970's. Their 1971 victory over Baltimore was a showcase for Clemente who batted .414 and received the Series MVP award. In 1979, the Pirates became only the fourth team in history to erase a three-games-to-one deficit when they again bested the Orioles in seven games. Hall of Famer Willie Stargell took home MVP honors — as he did during the regular season — with a .400 batting average, three home runs (including the Series' deciding blow in Game Seven) and seven RBI. It was a fitting conclusion to the decade for Stargell, who was the leading home-run hitter of the 1970's (296).

On October 2, 1985, the Galbreath family and Warner Communications sold the club to Pittsburgh Associates; a group of private investors who were committed to keeping the team in Pittsburgh.

Pittsburgh Associates was made up of 10 investors representing six corporations, three individuals and Carnegie Mellon University. The group included the Aluminum Company of America, Mellon Bank, PNC Financial Corporation, PPG Industries, USX Corporation, Westinghouse Electric Company, Eugene and Raymond Litman, John McConnell and Harvey M. Walken.

After several lean years in the mid-eighties, the Pirates returned to contention in 1988 when they finished in second place and broke the club's 28-year-old attendance mark.

With players like Barry Bonds, Doug Drabek, Bobby Bonilla and Andy Van Slyke, Pittsburgh started the decade of the 1990's in fine fashion, winning the N.L. East title three straight years. The Bucs became the first team to win three straight division titles since the Philadelphia Phillies accomplished the feat between 1976 and 1978. Manager Jim Leyland took home N.L. Manager-of-the-Year honors in both 1990 and 1992. In his 11 seasons at the helm, Leyland won 849 games, ranking him third on the club's All-Time Managerial win list.

The people of Pittsburgh and the surrounding Tri-State area responded well to the club's success in the nineties as the Pirates drew in excess of two million fans in both 1990 and 1991. A crowd of 59,568, the largest ever to watch a professional game in Pittsburgh, witnessed the 65th Major League Baseball All-Star Game, played at Three Rivers Stadium on July 12, 1994.

A new chapter of Pirate history began on February 14, 1996, when Kevin McClatchy and his group of investors purchased the storied franchise from Pittsburgh Associates. On August 6, 1998, McClatchy's vision of a new baseball-only ballpark started becoming a reality when PNC Bank struck a deal with the Pirates to call the new venue PNC Park.

Picked by many publications to finish last in 1997, the club stayed in the division race until the final weekend of the season and was named USA Today's "Organization of the Year" at the conclusion of the season.

The 2000 season was the end of a full century of great moments, a 100-year period which began with three straight National League pennants and ended with an aura of hope and dreams of more championships to come. With a new home on the horizon, the Bucs said goodbye to Three Rivers Stadium with their final game ever played there on October 1, 2000. Three no-hitters, Clemente's 3000th hit, two All-Star Games, countless playoff games, two World Championships and endless summer evenings can be associated with no other place in the history of Pittsburgh than Three Rivers Stadium.

With the 2001 campaign underway, stars like Jason Kendall, Brian Giles and Kris Benson hope to solidify their spot in Pirate history, as the storied franchise begins yet another era of exciting baseball in Pittsburgh.

BILLY MEYER

1948-1952

Born January 14, 1892 in Knoxville, TN, died March 31, 1957 in Knoxville. Threw and batted righthanded. A catcher with the White Sox and Athletics (1913, 1916-17), Meyer won eight pennants as a manager of minor league clubs from 1926 through 1947 before becoming Pirate manager in 1948. Known for his rapport with players, fans and the press, Meyer managed in Pittsburgh for five seasons, compiling a record of 317-452. He was The Sporting News Manager of the Year in 1948 when the Bucs compiled a record of 83-71. Following his five-year tenure as Pirate manager, Meyer was a Pittsburgh scout for three years. Number retired in 1954.

RALPH KINER

1946-1952

Born Oct. 27, 1922 in Santa Rita, NM. Threw and batted righthanded. A Hall of Famer (inducted in 1975), Kiner ranks second on club's all-time home run list (301). Won or shared N.L. home run title in each of his seven seasons with Pittsburgh (1946-52), a streak unmatched in either league. Hit a club-record 54 homers in 1949 and had a club-record .567 slugging pct. in Pirate career. Was the key player in 10-man deal with the Cubs on June 4, 1953.

Played with Cubs (1953-54) and Cleveland (1955) before back ailment ended his career prematurely. Hit 369 home runs in 10-year career, averaging 7.1 per 100 at-bats, second only to Babe Ruth's 8.5 per 100 at-bats. Number retired in 1987.

WILLIE STARGELL

Born March 6, 1941 in Earlsboro, OK. Threw and batted lefthanded. "Pops" compiled a remarkable career in a 21-year span from 1962 through 1982 with the Pirates. In 2,360 games he batted .282 with 475 home runs, seven home runs in post-season play, and 1,540 RBI. The Bucs' all-time home run, RBI and extra base hits king, Willie also ranks in the Pirates' top 10 in games, at bats, runs, hits, singles, doubles and total bases. Willie was a seven-time All-Star pick. In 1979 he was the N.L.'s co-MVP and the MVP in the LCS and World Series. Stargell became the 17th player elected to the Hall of Fame in his first year of eligibility (inducted in 1988). Number retired in 1982.

BILL MAZEROSKI

1956-1972

Born Sept. 5, 1936 in Wheeling, WV. Threw and batted righthanded. His well-chronicled home run against the Yankees gave Pittsburgh the 1960 World Championship. During his 17-year career with Pittsburgh (1956-72), "Maz" won eight Gold Glove awards and earned a reputation as one of the finest fielding second basemen in the history of the game. Among the major league records for second basemen he holds are: most seasons leading league in assists (nine), most seasons leading league in double plays (eight), most double plays in a single season (161 in 1966) and most career double plays (1,706). A seven-time N.L. All-Star, he compiled a .260 lifetime average with 138 home runs and 853 runs batted in. Number retired in 1987.

PIE TRAYNOR

1920-35, 37

Born November 11, 1899 in Framingham, MA, died March 16, 1972 in Pittsburgh. Threw and batted righthanded. Harold (Pie) Traynor was one of the finest third basemen in major league history, earning that reputation in a 17-year playing career spent entirely with the Pirates (1920-1935, 37). Regarded as an outstanding defensive player, Traynor was also adept with the bat, compiling a lifetime .320 average. While he hit just 58 home runs, he managed to drive in 1,273 runs. Pie ranks in the Pirates' top 10 in games, at bats, runs, hits, singles, doubles, triples, total bases, RBI, extra-base hits, batting average and stolen bases. The Hall of Famer (inducted in 1948) also managed the Pirates from 1934 through 1939. Number retired in 1972.

20

ROBERTO CLEMENTE

1955-1972

Born August 18, 1934 in Carolina, P.R., died December 31, 1972 in San Juan, P.R. Threw and batted righthanded. A Hall of Famer (inducted in 1973), Roberto Clemente was selected by the Pirates in the player draft when the Brooklyn Dodgers left him unprotected after the 1954 season. His first as a professional. For the next 18 years Clemente starred in the Pirate outfield. He won four N.L. batting crowns and batted .317 in his career, with 240 home runs and 1,305 RBI. He also won 12 Gold Glove Awards. He hit safely in all seven games in both the 1960 and 1971 World Series, winning the Series MVP Award in 1971 when he batted .414 with two homers and two doubles against Baltimore. Clemente was a 12-time All-Star and the N.L. MVP in 1966. He ranks in the Pirates' top 10 in 12 offensive categories. He died with four others when a plane carrying supplies to earthquake-stricken Nicaragua crashed. Number retired in 1973.

HONUS WAGNER

1900-1917

Born February 24, 1874 in Carnegie, PA, died December 6, 1955 in Carnegie. Threw and batted right handed. One of five players originally elected to the Baseball Hall of Fame in 1936. Honus Wagner is widely regarded as the best shortstop to ever play the game. "The Flying Dutchman" won eight N.L. batting crowns - second only to Ty Cobb's 12 titles - during a 17-year stretch in which he batted over .300 in each season. Wagner came to Pittsburgh in 1900 after three seasons with Louisville, a franchise that had disbanded. He played with the Bucs until 1917 and ended his career with a .329 average and 101 homers. Wagner was a coach with the Pirates between 1933 and 1951. He ranks among the Pirates' top 10 in 11 offensive categories. Number retired in 1952.

33

DANNY MURTAUGH

1957-1976

Born, October 8, 1917 in Chester, PA, died December 2, 1976 in Chester. Threw and batted right handed. A second baseman with the Phillies, Braves and Pirates (1941-43, 46-51), Danny Murtaugh was one of the most successful managers in Pirates history. He managed the Bucs in four different stints during 15 seasons between 1957 and 1976. During that time he became one of only 36 managers to win 1,000 games, compiling a record of 1,115-950, his win total ranking second on the Pirates all-time list to Fred Clarke's 1,422. He led the Pirates to four Eastern Division crowns and two World Series Championships (1960 and 1971). He was named The Sporting News Manager of the Year in 1960 and 1970. Number retired in 1977.

40

JACKIE ROBINSON

1947-1956

Born January 31, 1919 in Cairo, GA, died October 24, 1972 in Stamford, CT. Threw and batted righthanded. Known forever as the first black player in the major leagues, Jack Roosevelt Robinson played for the Brooklyn Dodgers from 1947 to 1956, helping them to six pennants in a 10-year span and to their only World Championship in 1955. He was named the N.L. Rookie of the Year in 1947 and the league's MVP in 1949. A six-time All-Star, Robinson also became the first man to integrate the Baseball Hall of Fame in 1962. In 1997, as a tribute to the legacy he created, Major League Baseball retired his number 42 league-wide on the 50th Anniversary of his breaking the game's color barrier. The Pirates officially retired his number in a pre-game ceremony on July 12, 1997.

MICKY WHITE

DIRECTOR OF SCOUTING - LATIN AMERICAN OPERATIONS

Michael J. "Mickey" White was named the Pirates' Director of Scouting on November 23, 1998. His duties were extended to Latin America in September of 2000. Mickey joined the organization after spending three years (1996-98) as an assistant to Chuck LaMar, the General Manager of the Tampa Bay Devil Rays. White joined the Devil Rays after serving as General Manager for The Baseball Academy at the Balliti Sports Academy in Bradenton, FL, for two years.

From 1990 to 1993, Mickey was Director of Scouting and a Special Assistant to the General Manager for the Cleveland Indians. While with the Indians, he directed the team's free agent drafts in 1991 and 1992. In 1992, White received the Topps' Scouting All-Star Award and the Indians were named "Organization of the Year" by Baseball America.

White was also the East Coast Scouting Supervisor for the Seattle Mariners from 1988 to 1990 and served the Cincinnati Reds as their Northeast Scouting Supervisor from 1982 to 1988. Prior to entering Major League Baseball's scouting domain, Mickey served five years at his alma mater, Rutgers University, where he was the baseball coach and offensive coordinator for the football team.

Mickey was born on 3/31/50 in Pittsburgh, PA. He received his bachelors degree from Rutgers University in 1973 and his master's from Fairleigh-Dickinson University's Graduate School of Business. A native of Pittsburgh and a graduate of Seton LaSalle High School, White resides in Madison, CT, with his wife Maryann and his three children; Karl (21), Erin (18) and Lauren (17).

DEVELOPMENT STAFF

PAUL TINNELL DIRECTOR OF PLAYER DEVELOPMENT

Paul has been a member of the Pittsburgh organization since 1990. After serving as a college baseball coach for nine years, he began his scouting career in 1990 as a scouting supervisor for the Cleveland Indians. Tinnell spent nearly three seasons as a scouting supervisor for the Pirates in the state of Florida before being named the club's Director of Scouting on July 31, 1993. He was named to his current position on October 7, 1996.

In his role, Tinnell is responsible for the continued development and advancement of players beginning with their signing and continuing through the minor league system, and, ultimately, to the major league level. He also supervises the administration of the minor leagues and oversees the relationship with the Pirates' minor league affiliates. In addition, Paul is responsible for the signing of all minor league free agents.

Tinnell was born on 9/21/57 in Lynchburg, VA. He earned a bachelor's degree in health and education from the University of Tennessee-Martin in 1980 and received a master's degree in educational administration/supervision in 1982. Tinnell was voted to the All-West-Tennessee All-Star baseball team his senior year (1980). Paul and his wife Laurie reside in Pine Township with their three children; John (16), Kevin (13) and Jennifer (10).

STEVE DEMETER MINOR LEAGUE FIELD COORDINATOR

Demeter brings 45 years of baseball experience to his current position with the Pirates, the same role he held in 1984 and 1986. Steve began his association with Pittsburgh in 1972 as player-manager of the Pirates' Sherbrooke club in the Eastern League. After managing in the Bucs' farm system for nine years (1972-1980), Demeter served the club as its Minor League Hitting Instructor for three seasons (1981-83) and the Coordinator of Instruction in 1984. In 1985, Steve was a member of the major league coaching staff under Chuck Tanner. He managed at Salem in 1987 before becoming a scouting supervisor in 1988, a position he held until being named to his current post on October 31, 1996.

A veteran of 19 seasons, Demeter's playing career began in 1953 and concluded in 1972, with his only major league playing experience coming in 1959 when he played 11 games with Detroit and in 1960 when he appeared in four games with Cleveland. In his first season of pro ball, Steve batted .349 with 15 home runs and 123 RBI in 124 games with Wausau. His minor league high of 26 homers came with Toronto (Brewers' AAA) in 1961. He led the International League in hits while playing with Rochester in 1965 and 1966 and led the circuit in doubles three straight seasons (1965-67).

Demeter was born on 1/27/35, in Homer City, PA. He and his wife Joanne reside in Cleveland, OH, and have two children; Catharine (44) and Stephen (34).

NASHVILLE SOUNDS

Nashville finished 19 games behind division-leading Memphis (Cardinals) with a record of 63-79, which was last in the East Division of the Pacific Coast League. The turning point of the season came in late July when the club lost 21 of 26 games between July 25 & August 20.

Hitting Coach Richie Hebner assumed the managerial duties when Sounds skipper Trent Jewett was promoted to Pittsburgh as the club's new Third Base Coach on June 6 (the club was 29-28 at the time).

The club placed eighth in the 16-team circuit with a 4.80 ERA and tied for last in the league with a .258 batting average. The Sounds drew 269,682 fans to Greer Stadium in 69 home dates (3,908 average), placing 14th in the league.

Catcher/infielder Craig Wilson was selected to the post-season All-Star team, the only Sounds player to be named to the squad. He tied for third in the league with 33 home runs and led the organization's farm system in that category. His 33 home runs fell one short of the franchise record of 34, set by Steve Balboni in 1980 and equaled by Brian Dayett in 1982. Wilson was also the lone representative at the mid-summer All-Star Game.

Outfielder Tike Redman finished in a three-way tie for second in the league with a team-leading 11 triples. He finished fifth in the league in at bats.

Aramis Ramirez, who spent a majority of the season with Pittsburgh, was named to play in the second annual Futures All-Star game.

Despite his promotion to Pittsburgh, Bronson Arroyo led the Sounds pitching staff with eight victories. Jose Parra, who spent a month with Pittsburgh, led Nashville in games started, walks allowed and wild pitches.

ALTOONA CURVE

Altoona's hopes of a qualifying for the playoffs came down to the final game of the season before falling just shy of a berth to the Eastern League post-season. The Curve lost a 2-1 decision to Akron (Indians) in the season finale (a victory would have clinched a tie for a playoff spot). Still, after an 8-14 start to the season, which included an 11-game losing streak, the Curve managed to reverse their fortunes and go 66-54 (.550) during the remainder of the season.

Altoona drew a total of 333,968 (5,060 average) fans in 66 games to Blair County Ballpark, which was sixth-best in the 12-team circuit and ranked 31st out of the 160 minor league baseball teams. The team finished seventh in the league with a 4.06 ERA and tied for seventh with .264 batting average.

Outfielder Adam Hyzdu was the talk of the league for the second year in a row. He was named the Eastern League's Most Valuable Player, pacing the circuit in homers, RBI, extra base hits (72) and runs scored. In addition, he had the second-best slugging percentage (.554), third-most doubles, fifth-best on-base percentage (.405) and fourth-most hits. He was also a two-time Eastern League Player-of-the-Week (May 15-21 and July 24-30) and was named to the league's post-season All-Star team. Before being promoted to the Pirates at the conclusion of the Curve's season, Hyzdu had his number 16 jersey retired while earning team MVP honors for a second straight year.

Second baseman Rob Mackowiak also had a productive season at the plate. Mackowiak finished second in the league in hits, while leading the team in at bats. He ranked second among Curve players in runs, doubles, home runs and RBI.

The pitching department was led by two other members of the Curve who also earned a spot on the Eastern League post-season All-Star team - lefties Sam McConnell and Wilson Guzman.

McConnell was Altoona's lone representative in the Double-A All-Star Game. Before being promoted to Triple-A on 7/12, McConnell dominated the Eastern League as both a starter and reliever. He led the league for most of the season in ERA before his promotion.

Guzman was just as effective in the Curve's starting rotation. He won six of his first eight starts, while tossing two complete games. His year was highlighted by being named the Pirates' Minor League Pitcher-of-the-Year. He finished third in the organization in ERA, tied for second in wins and ranked third in strikeouts.

LYNCHBURG HILLCATS

The Hillcats struggled in the first half of the season, posting a 27-43 record and finishing in last place. However, in the second half of the season, Lynchburg went 39-29 and won the Northern Division by 5.5 games over Wilmington (Royals).

In the post-season, the Hillcats swept Frederick (Orioles) in the best-of-three semi-final playoff series. Carolina League champion Myrtle Beach (Braves) swept Lynchburg in the best-of-five series for the Mills Cup Championship.

The Hillcats had two players named to the mid-season Carolina League All-Star team; catcher Lee Evans and pitcher Joe Beimel.

Outfielder J.J. Davis, who joined Evans on the post-season All-Star team, ranked fourth among league leaders in home runs.

HICKORY CRAWDADS

In just their second season as an affiliate of the Pirates, the Crawdads posted a decent overall record, but failed to make the playoffs behind first-year manager Jay Lovaglio. This marked the first time since 1994 that the Pirates' entry in the South Atlantic League did not advance to the post-season.

The club went 36-35 in the initial half to finish in fourth place, 11.0 games behind Piedmont (Phillies). Hickory posted a record of 39-31 in the second half and finished second, 6.0 games behind division-leading Piedmont.

The club led the South Atlantic League with a .275 batting average and ranked fifth with a 3.74 ERA. Hickory averaged 2,627 spectators in 70 home dates for a total of 183,922 fans and a third-place ranking in league attendance.

Catcher J.R. House led the league in hitting (.348) and home runs (23), but fell eight RBI shy of winning the Triple Crown. His 90 RBI ranked fourth among league leaders. For his efforts, House was named the South Atlantic League's Most Valuable Player and was selected to the post-season All-Star team. The 21-year-old backstop, who was 20 during the season, also paced the circuit with a .586 slugging percentage.

Shortstop Jose Castillo ranked fifth with 158 hits and led the club with 95 runs scored. Outfielder Tony Alvarez tied for fifth among league leaders with 52 stolen bases. Both players were named to the mid-season All-Star team.

Second-year player Bobby Bradley erupted upon the scene, winning his first four starts and posting a 1.04 ERA in that time (26.0ip/3er). After nine starts, the 19-year-old righthander had an 8-1 record, three complete games and a 1.71 ERA. Arm problems cut his season short, but he still managed to go 8-2 with a 2.29 ERA in 14 starts. Bradley was also named to the mid-season All-Star team.

Lefthander Dave Williams was selected to the post-season All-Star team. He led the staff with 11 victories and ranked seventh in the league with a 2.96 ERA. In addition, Williams led the circuit with 193 strikeouts. Righthander Justin Reid led the league with five.

Two other players were also named to the mid-season All-Star team; outfielder Jason Landreth and right-handed reliever Danny Carrasco.

WILLIAMSPORT CROSSCUTTERS

In their second year of a four-year affiliation (thru 2002) with the Pirates, Williamsport went 29-44 and finished last among the seven teams in the Pinckney Division of the New York-Penn League.

Under second-year manager Curtis Wilkerson, the Crosscutters finished 17.5 games behind division winner Mahoning Valley (Indians). With a total of 67,220 fans through the turnstiles at historic Bowman Field, Williamsport set a short-season attendance record, eclipsing the old mark of 65,089, held by the 1996 Williamsport Cubs. In addition, the per-game average of 1,769 was the second-highest mark in club history, dating back to the late 1800's. The highest per-game average was also set in 1996 (1,808).

Catcher Ryan Doumit was named to the post-season All-Star team. The 19-year-old backstop ranked 10th in the batting race with a .313 average and led the club with 40 RBI. Outfielder Manuel Ravelo hit .303 and ranked second in the league with seven triples. His 28 stolen bases tied for fifth in the league in that department. Third baseman Ray Navarrete batted .310 and ranked second on the club with 36 RBI. He shared the team lead in games (66) and hits (77) with Doumit.

Righthander Landon Jacobsen went 3-2 with a 1.41 ERA in nine starts before being promoted to Hickory on 8/5. For his efforts with Williamsport, Jacobsen was named to the post-season All-Star team.

BRADENTON PIRATES

The Pirates posted their first winning season since 1991 by going 34-26 under manager Woody Huyke, who completed his 24th season with the Baby Bucs. The Pirates finished 4.0 games behind the division-leading Yankees.

Bradenton ranked fifth in the 13-team Gulf Coast League with a 3.38 ERA and ranked eighth with a .253 batting average.

First baseman Walter Young hit .296 with a team-high 10 home runs before being promoted to Williamsport. His 10 homers established the club record for long balls - the previous mark of eight was shared by Jovanny Sosa (1998) and Dimas Gutierrez (1983). Outfielder Humberto Aliendo finished fifth in the league in RBI and also led the team in at bats, hits and games.

Right-handed pitcher Julio Guerrero led the staff with five victories and righthander Sean Burnett, the Pirates' No. 1 selection in the June draft, went 2-1 in eight games (six starts). Reliever Kevin Lee went 4-0 with a 1.80 ERA in nine games

HOME UNIFORM

ROAD UNIFORM

THE HISTORY OF THE PIRATES UNIFORM

- 1900: The jersey of this period was short-sleeved with no trim except for a dark blue collar. Stockings were dark blue with red stripes and the cap was blue with a white "P". A "PBC" monogram signifying Pittsburgh Baseball Club was also added to the left sleeve later in the decade.
- 1910: The regular collar was replaced by the short, stand-up "cadet" style with a button collar. Pinstriped material was also introduced. As the team nickname became more accepted, "Pirates" was displayed in capital letters down the button lapel. The cadet-style collar soon gave way to a tapered collar extension, but the button lapel remained solid dark blue with white buttons and a "P-P" straddling the top button. Later in this decade, the cap had piping and also included a "P" in white or red.

UNIFORM INFORMATION

- 1920: Standard white uniforms were worn at home and gray on the road with simple graphics and solid colors. The 1925 & '27 championship teams wore the standard capital "P" on its sleeves but not on the jersey.
- 1930: The Pirate uniforms brightened up considerably with added colors, trim features and graphics. The name "Pirates" was placed across the jersey in an arc of fancy red and blue capital letters. Solid blue belts were included and piping trim on the uniforms included blue and red. A red "P" was also placed on the solid blue cap.
- 1937: The name "Pirates" appeared on the jersey in script lettering with underline flourish.
- 1939: A zipper front replaced the button-down jersey.
- 1941: The uniform abandons the traditional "P" or "Pirates" for an emblem of an actual buccaneer. The patch was placed on the left breast of both the home and road jerseys. This was the first time an emblem of the team's nickname was ever worn on a game jersey.
- 1948: The team replaced the traditional blue and red with the present day black and gold. The script "Pirates" and "Pittsburgh" was replaced with the block lettering that you still see today. The cap became solid black with a gold "P".
- 1953: The word "Pittsburgh" is removed from the road jersey, and replaced with "Pirates".
- 1957: The Pirates became the second team to begin wearing sleeveless jerseys.
- 1962: Numbers were introduced on the front of the home and road jerseys and have been there ever since.
- 1970: The Pirates became the first major league club to adopt the new double-knit fabric uniforms. The jersey became a pullover with no button or zipper. The pants contained a built-in sash belt. The cap crown was mustard yellow with a black bill. Within two years, nearly every other club was wearing a double-knit uniform.
- 1976: The Pirates, as well as other clubs, commemorate the National League's centennial by wearing the old striped, pill-box style caps. The Bucs wore yellow caps with a black bill and black stripes.
- 1977: Abandoned were the traditional white and gray uniforms in exchange for combinations of white, gold, black and pinstriping. The caps became black with yellow stripes. Players' last names appear on the back of the jerseys for the first time.
- 1985: The Pirates returned to the basic white and gray uniform.
- 1987: The Pirates replaced the striped cap in favor of the traditional standard black round crown type.
- 1990: A script "Pittsburgh" is added to the gray road uniform for the first time since 1952.
- 1991: The Pirates return to button-down jerseys and belted pants.
- 1995: Going back to a more traditional look, the Pirates removed the names from the back of the jerseys.
- 1996: That change lasted only one year, as the Pirates return the names to the back of the jerseys.
- 1997: The organization introduce a complete new look by introducing an alternate home jersey as well as bringing the color "red" back into the uniform for the first time since 1946.
- 2001: With the opening of PNC Park, the club enters a "New Era of Baseball." The team re-introduces the sleeveless jersey as part of both the home and road uniform. The Pirates also become the first team ever to wear a cap with a red underbill (cap worn with the alternate home jersey only).

BROADCASTERS*LANNY FRATTAREVoice of the Pirates

The 2001 season marks Lanny Frattare's 26th as a broadcaster with the Pittsburgh Pirates. Only Bob Prince (28 years) has described the action of Pirates baseball longer. He signed a three-year extension in January of 2000, which will keep him behind the mic with the Bucs thru 2003.

Since joining Pittsburgh's team of announcers in 1976, "The Voice of the Pirates" has done play-by-play for more than 3,500 games and developed a strong following.

A native of Rochester, NY, Frattare received his bachelor's degree in communications from Ithaca (NY) College in 1970. His association with the Pirates organization began in 1974 and 1975 when he broadcast games for the Triple-A Charleston (WV) Charlies.

Frattare enjoys golf, presidential history and music. He hosts a celebrity golf tournament at St. Clair Country Club each July for the benefit of the Parent and Child Guidance Center. In 2000, Frattare was inducted into the Ithaca College Hall-of-Fame. Lanny has two children; son David (26) and daughter Megan (19). David currently works in the Attorney General's office of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania and his wife, Ann Marie, is in the marketing department of Giant Eagle.

GREG BROWNPlay-by-Play Announcer

Greg Brown is in his eighth season as a radio and television play-by-play announcer with the Pirates. Prior to joining the Bucs broadcast team, he spent five seasons (1989-1993) doing play-by-play and color commentary for the Buffalo Bisons of the American Association as well as hosting a sportstalk show on WGR Radio. Brown also worked as a color analyst and a pre- and post-game show host for the Buffalo Bills of the National Football League for three seasons (1991-93).

Greg's association with the Pirates actually began in 1979, when he interned in the Promotions department while attending Point Park College. Following the World Series that year, Brown worked as the clubhouse manager during the Instructional League program in Bradenton, Florida. His 10-year stint in the Bucs front office included work in the Sales, Public Relations and Broadcasting departments. Greg also served as the team's public address announcer during the 1987 campaign. In 1988, he was a sports anchor on WFMJ-TV in Youngstown, OH.

Brown, who joined the Pirates broadcast crew in 1994, coined the "Freak Show" theme which gained national attention during the team's surprising division title run in 1997. Also in 1997, the Pennsylvania Press Broadcasters awarded Brown and his colleagues first place for radio play-by-play.

Greg, a native of Washington, D.C., resides in McCandless Township with his wife Kim and son Ryan (9/29/98).

PIRATE RADIO BROADCAST TEAMS

In 1936 KDKA-Radio hired Rosey Rowswell as the Pirates' first full-time announcer. He worked alone for awhile, then was joined by Jack Craddock and Bob Prince. The following is a chronology of the Pirate radio broadcast teams over the years. Most of the years have been with KDKA (continuous since 1955) but WWSW was also the Pirates' flagship station at one time.

STEVE BLASS

Color Analyst

Steve Blass joined the Pittsburgh Pirates' broadcast crew in 1986. A native of Canaan, CT, he began his association with the Pirates when he signed his first professional contract in 1960. The former right-handed pitcher spent 10 seasons (1964-1974) with the Pirates, compiling a record of 103-76 in 282 games. He ranks seventh on the club's all-time list in strikeouts (896) and 14th in wins.

A member of the 1972 National League All-Star team, Blass won 78 games during a five-year period between 1968 and 1972. He was a Pirate hero in the 1971 World Series against Baltimore when he picked up complete-game victories in Game Three and Game Seven.

After retiring following the 1974 season, Blass remained in the Pittsburgh area and worked in private business. In 1983, he worked with the legendary Bob Prince on Pirate cable telecasts and was also retained the following year when the cable rights were secured by Home Sports Entertainment.

He and his wife Karen live in Upper St. Clair. They have two sons, David and Christopher, and three grandchildren.

BOB WALK

Color Analyst

After spending 14 seasons in a big league uniform, Bob Walk joined the Pirates broadcast crew in 1994. The former right-handed pitcher spent 10 of those 14 years with Pittsburgh (1984-1993). He compiled a 105-81 lifetime record, which included an 82-61 mark with the Pirates.

Walk's professional career began with Spartanburg in 1977 after he was drafted by the Philadelphia Phillies in the 3rd round of the 1976 June draft. He made his major league debut with the Phillies in 1980 and was the starting pitcher in Game One of the World Series that October against the Kansas City Royals.

In the spring of 1981, Walk was dealt to the Atlanta Braves for outfielder Gary Matthews. He spent three seasons in the Atlanta organization before being acquired by Pittsburgh in 1984. Walk was a 1988 National League All-Star and he posted six straight winning seasons from 1987 to 1992. His finest moment as a Pirate came in 1992 when he notched a 7-1, complete-game victory over Atlanta in Game Five of the National League Championship Series.

Walk, a native of Newhall, CA, currently resides in Wexford with his wife Lorrie and their three sons; Tommy (21), Johnny (18) and Ronny (11).

MEDIA POLICIES

WELCOME: On behalf of the Pittsburgh Pirates organization, we would like to welcome you to the Inaugural Season at beautiful PNC Park. We respectfully remind you that the policies for PNC Park may differ from those that you grew accustomed to at Three Rivers Stadium. In order to sustain precedent, any violation of these following guidelines may result in immediate revocation of your credential and bar future access to PNC Park. If you have any questions or requests, please don't hesitate to ask our staff and we will make every attempt to accommodate you. We look forward to working with you throughout the 2001 season.

THE PIRATES MEDIA RELATIONS OFFICE: Located on the fourth floor of the team's administrative building on the corner of General Robinson Street and Federal Street. All persons wishing to visit the media relations office must sign in with the 24-hour security guard on the street level of the building.

MEDIA ENTRANCE TO PNC PARK: All members of the media must enter the ballpark at the "Press Tower" - the tallest of the two towers located on General Robinson Street (left-field line).

PRESS BOX/BROADCAST BOOTHS: All broadcast booths are located on the press box level. Access to the press box is available only by the "Press Tower" elevator. Only accredited members of the media and credentialed personnel will be permitted in the press box. The press box is an active working area. Cheering and loud conversation will not be tolerated at any time. The Pittsburgh Pirates prohibit any person under the age of 18 to enter the press box level on game days. Anyone violating these policies will be asked to leave the premises. No cameras (still or video) are allowed in the press box unless authorized by the Media Relations department.

PARKING: Media parking is very limited. Daily requests will be handled on a first-come, first-served basis. Season parking passes will be distributed along with season credentials in March (if applicable). The location of the media parking lot and additional information was not available at press time of this book.

INTERVIEW ROOM: Located along the Service Tunnel between the home and visiting clubhouses. The room will be used for media conferences and other special interviews and events.

PRESS LOUNGE: Located along the Service Tunnel between the home and visiting clubhouses. The lounge is open to credentialed members of the media and front office staff 2 hours prior to the game. The lounge will close approximately 1 hour after the start of the game. A full meal is served to all media for $7. Soft drinks will be available during games on the press box level.

PHONES FOR MEDIA: The Pirates will supply 10 Charge Call phones in the working press box. For those wishing to have their own dedicated phone line in the press box, a contact will be provided at a later date.

NO SMOKING: Smoking is prohibited in the press box and in the broadcast booths. Those wishing to smoke may do so on the stairwell of the "Press Tower," located outside the press box entrance.

MEDIA INFORMATION

SEASON CREDENTIALS: Season credentials will be issued only to those legitimate news-gathering sources who will cover the Pirates everyday. Only members of the working press will be issued credentials (this does not include freelance writers). No one under 18 years of age will be issued working credentials, unless clearance has been given by the Pirates. Only Pittsburgh Pirate, National League or BBWAA-issued credentials will be honored. Credentials are not transferable and should be visible at all times.

DAILY CREDENTIALS: These will be issued to those who do not qualify for season credentials, including freelance writers and weekly and monthly publications. Daily credentials will also be issued to area Radio and Television stations when the need arises for extra pre/post-game personnel and daily newspapers making last-minute changes in coverage. Daily requests should be made at least 24 hours in advance of the desired game.

CREDENTIAL REQUESTS: Applications for working media credentials should have been made in writing and received no later than Friday, March 16. All requests must come from sports editors, sports directors or photo editors, and submitted on official media outlet letterhead. Requests for daily credentials can be faxed to 412-325-4413 or e-mailed to any one of the three members of the Media Relations staff.

ON-LINE SERVICES: Per Major League Baseball guidelines, the Pirates will not issue working credentials to any on-line service, unless they meet each of the following criteria:

1. It is part of a national news gathering agency
2. It reaches a broad audience
3. It produces original content
4. It has an established record of developing original content
5. It employs full-time journalists

CLUBHOUSE ACCESS: Both clubhouses are located along the Service Tunnel. The Pirate clubhouse is on the third base side and the Visitor's clubhouse is on the first base side. The Pittsburgh clubhouse is open to credentialed media from 3 1/2 hours prior to game time until 45 minutes before game time. It re-opens to credentialed media approximately 5 minutes following the conclusion of the game. The clubhouse may be open briefly between games of a doubleheader only for those with early deadlines and it is closed during rain delays. It is also closed while the club is taking batting practice on the field, unless the player needed is in the clubhouse. Access to the visiting clubhouse will be determined solely by the visiting club's policies. In addition, the clubhouse is not a "lounge" for members of the media - you must have a specific reason for clubhouse access to gain admittance. If you have specific interview requests for a player or coach, we encourage you to contact a member of the Pirates' Media Relations staff, who will try to accommodate your needs.

FIELD ACCESS: The field and dugouts are accessible to credentialed media from the time the press gate opens until the end of the visiting club's batting practice. If the visiting club does not take batting practice, the field is accessible until 45 minutes before game time. At no time is the media permitted in fair territory and must stay inside the first and third base bags. Access to the field is available on the Service Level only by one of three tunnels: one of the two leading into the Pirates dugout or the one leading into the visitor's dugout.

AUTOGRAPH POLICY: Credentialed members of the media are prohibited from requesting autographs or equipment on the playing field, in the dugout or in the clubhouse. Should the need arise for an autograph request, notify the Media Relations Department. Any violation of these guidelines could result in immediate termination of the credential and future access.

PHOTOGRAPHERS: Darkrooms are located along the Service Tunnel behind home plate. Limited photo locations are available at various field level areas, as well as in the TV locations located around the ballpark. All photographers must have credentials and roving is prohibited unless authorized by the Pirates. No freelance photographers will be granted credentials. All photographs taken are to be used for news-gathering purposes or officially licensed products. All still photo locations should be reserved through Dave Arrigo, the Pirates' official team photographer.

REPORTS, RADIO & TV: Reports are defined as NON play-by-play reporting by non-rightsholders of scores and game highlights, including scene setters, game in-progress updates and post-game summaries.

- Reports must be limited to 60 seconds in length and no more than one report per inning may be filed to each media outlet.
- Radio and television reporters/stringers must notify the Pirates of their plans to do live reports at the time credentials are requested.
- Television reporters may file live reports from the field or an assigned press-level booth up until game time. Live television reports by non-rightsholders are prohibited while the rightsholder is on the air or while the game is in progress.
- Live television reports - to air during regularly scheduled news programming - are permitted during the game only when there is no home telecast. These in-game reports may not show the game in progress.
